Mayer's Case Going to International Monday

Local 17 Meeting Has Hot Discussion Business Agent of Union to Be Asked About Association With Alleged Reds

A heated discussion of the case of C. H. (Hank) Mayer, business agent of Local 17, American Hod Carriers Union, who has been linked with a new organization to which Communists allegedly belong, reached an impasse at a meeting of the local in Newburgh Friday night and will be taken before the international in New York city on Monday, The Freeman learned today.

U.S. Shows All Arms To World Reserves Display Equipment Here

If Russia's diplomatic-military representatives want a look at American armed might, an imposing sample was available for inspection today, according to an Associated Press story from Washington.

Assembled at various military bases throughout the nation was a cross section of just about all the weapons with which the United States would fight a war in this jet-missile-atomic age.

CAPT. BRONISLAW HUDELA

The mobile shop truck and truck mounted shovel was on exhibition to show the type of equipment used for training members of the engineer reserve unit.

Recruiting Youth
Captain Bronislaw Hudeła stressed that under the current regulations of the Reserve Forces Act an eligible youth can serve on active duty for six months and then be assigned to (Continued on Page 5, Col. 6)

Man Pays Fine After Span Climb

Persuasive local police saved a 24-year-old Catskill man from possible injury or death when he climbed cables to the top of the Rondout Creek bridge early today.

George W. Mayr, of 399 Main street Catskill who was arrested on a disorderly conduct charge, pleaded guilty in City Court today and was fined $20 or 20 days by Judge Raymond J. Mino. He paid the $20 fine.

It was only through the persuasion of five policemen that Mayr was saved from tragedy. A police received a call at 12:32 a. m. from his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Mayr, of 5 Wurts street, that her son "just came home, had been drinking," left the house and was climbing the cables to the top of the bridge.

Officers Gilbert Gray, Everett Enmick, Bruce Clarke, Leonard Ellsworth and Harry Tempelaar were assigned and reported Mayr had climbed to the top of (Continued on Page 5, Col. 7)

The executive board of the local will appear before President Joseph V. Moreschi and a panel of international officials, it is reported.

A reliable source told The Freeman that Mr. Mayer would also be present.

Heated Discussion
Mr. Mayer has admitted belonging to the newly formed organization, American Forum — For Socialist Education, it is reported.

Efforts to reach Mr. Mayer at his home in Andes this morning were unavailing. It is understood that Mr. Mayer was questioned closely and at considerable length by the membership Friday night and that at times the discussion became somewhat strained.

Some of the members "are pretty well hepped up," it was reported.

Says He's Member
Mr. Mayer reportedly told a meeting of the Ulster-Sullivan Building and Construction Trades Council at a meeting last Tuesday night that he belonged to the organization.

Last Monday The New York Times listed Mr. Mayer as a member of the national committee of the American Forum — For Socialist Education.

Declares He's Socialist
Stephen Gill, secretary of the Ulster-Sullivan Council, said following the meeting last Tuesday that Mr. Mayer denied that he is a Communist. "But he did say he's a Socialist," Mr. Gill told a reporter.

The Times said the new organization aims to advance "study and serious untrammeled political discussion among all elements that think of themselves as related to historic Socialist and labor traditions, values and objectives . . . however deep and bitter their differences may have been."

The newspaper said that formation of the new organization is "to promote cooperation between Communists and non-Communist." (Continued on Page 5, Col. 5)

Onteora Votes June 1 To Annex Area Schools

Balloting on the annexation of Common School District No. 2, town of Woodstock and Union Free School District No. 5, town of Hurley and Woodstock to Onteora Central School system will take place at the Onteora Central School Saturday June 1. Voting hours will be from 2 to 8 p. m.

All qualified voters of Central School District No. 1 of the towns of Olive, Shandaken, Woodstock, Marlborough and Hurley in Ulster county and Lexington in Greene county will be eligible to vote.

According to James E. Allen Jr., commissioner of education, the voting will be on two resolutions: Annexation of the Common School District No. 2 of the town of Woodstock to Onteora Central system, and annexation of Union Free School District No. 5 of the towns of Hurley and Woodstock to the Onteora Central School system.

Voters of Union Free School District 5 approved annexation with Onteora by a vote of 161 to 143 on April 6.

Common School District 2 of the town of Woodstock voted

More Rain, Oklahoma Forecast Record Flooding Is Seen in Tulsa

(By The Associated Press)
Thunderstorms and showers were in prospect for much of the country today including inundated sections of Oklahoma where the danger of floods was focused in eastern areas.

Record flooding was indicated in Tulsa and the small community of Keystone. Some 2,200 acres in Tulsa was expected to be flooded and a peak of 26 feet on the Arkansas river was likely today. Flood stage on the river there is 19 feet.

1,000 Evacuees
At least 1,000 persons evacuated homes on both sides of the Arkansas last night and officials warned others in the area to get out "before it's too late."

More than half of the 2,400 residents were being removed from Bixby, a lowland Tulsa county community.

Thunderstorms rumbled through south-central Oklahoma yesterday and high winds, downpours and hail lashed southern sections.

Damage estimates will run into the millions and state officials said road damage alone will cost from two to five million dollars. Upwards of 40 state and federal highways have been closed because of smashed bridges and high water.

Hail Pelts City
Thunderstorms were forecast today in northern Texas, southeastern Oklahoma and southern and central sections of Arkansas.

Severe thunderstorms and a few tornadoes battered north-central Texas and Oklahoma during the night. At Wichita Falls, Tex., nearly 4 inches of rain fell in 6 hours and 3-inch hail pelted the city.

Gusty winds reaching 50 to 60 M.P.H. buffeted portions of northern Texas. Other large rainfall amounts included 1.27 inches at Abilene, Tex., 1.30 (Continued on Page 5, Col. 6)

VIGIL BEFORE RESCUE—Benjamin Hooper, 30, shouts down the narrow well shaft where his son, Benjamin Jr., 7, was trapped 21 feet below the surface in the backyard of their Manorville, N. Y., home. The youngster was rescued alive Friday about 7:10 p. m. after workmen clawed with bare hands through the last few inches of earth. A Negro construction worker lifted the weakened child from the sandy trap that had held him upright and almost motionless through a night and a day. (NEA Telephoto)

Trapped 24 Hours Boy Is Under Oxygen After Miracle Rescue

Manorville, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—Seven-year-old Benjamin Hooper Jr. napped restlessly today under an oxygen tent as his mother and father kept a bedside vigil.

The sandy-haired, blue-eyed boy was pulled alive last night from the bottom of a well in his backyard. He had been trapped in the well for nearly 24 hours. An ambulance raced the boy to Bayview General Hospital at nearby Mastic Beach. He was suffering from shock and exposure.

Visited by Sister
At 7 a. m. today he was reported in fair to good condition. Benny's 6-year-old sister, Wendy, visited him briefly this morning accompanied by her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Nettie Hooper, and her uncle, Ronald A. Hooper.

"Hello, Wendy," he said. "He's doing fine," said the boy's father, Benjamin Hooper. Hooper and his wife, Borghild, kept a vigil at their son's bedside. "Mommy" was his first word and then he called for "daddy."

Takes Some Food
"The boy's condition is good," said Dr. J. H. Kris, the attending physician. "He is able to talk and asked for food. He has taken some food. Everything is on the up and up." Benny took some beef broth, hot tea with sugar and ginger ale.

He was given antibiotics to guard the possibility of respiratory infection. His temperature was nearly normal. Kris said doctors would need to keep a close watch for 24 hours because of the danger of pneumonia in such cases of exposure.

Persuance Triumph
Benny's rescue was a triumph of persuasion for 200 grimy workmen who battled hours after desperate hour to save the boy. They fought with oxygen lines, power shovels, piping, wooden shoring—and sweat.

They fought with the hopes and prayers of millions of Americans across the nation. They never gave up hope even when it appeared only a miracle would save the boy.

And a "miracle" is just what many of the weary men called it. Cries of exultation burst (Continued on Page 16, Col. 5)

Struck on 9W, Youth Critical

Thomas Edward Welsh, 16, of RD 3, Box 192, Saugerties, was in "apparently critical" condition today at Kingston Hospital as the result of injuries suffered early this morning when he was struck by an automobile as he was crossing Glasco Turnpike at its junction with Route 9W.

He was taken to Kingston Hospital by Schultz Ambulance suffering from shock, possible head injuries, a fracture of the left leg, severe lacerations and internal injuries.

Troopers David Wachtel and Roger Lesniewski of the Kingston state police reported that young Welsh was walking along the east side of Route 9W and that when he reached the point where the road turns off to Glasco he kept walking straight ahead, crossing the turnpike road.

A car operated by Albert A. Barone, 28, of PO Box 66, Glasco, turning into the turnpike, struck young Welsh and knocked him down, it was reported.

The Barone car was proceeding north on Route 9W about 25 MPH, slowing to make the turn at the time of the mishap, it was reported.

Settlement Made In Injury Case

An action for personal injuries brought by Leo Platinsky of New City, Rockland county, against Sam Basch of Kingston, has been settled in Supreme Court for $24,000. Settlement came after the case had been partially tried before Justice Kenneth MacAffer and a jury.

Mr. Platinsky, represented by Aaron E. Klein and John J. Schick with Mr. Klein as trial counsel, was employed at the Chambers School in the town of Ulster at the time of the accident on July 19, 1956. The accident was at the corner of Broadway and O'Reilly street when the plaintiff's car was struck in the rear by the Basch car. Platinsky suffered a back injury. Cook and Cook represented the defendant.

Three Main Pickups
Beginnings of a potential pickup were noted in at least three sectors of the economy where soft spots had developed—autos, appliances and textiles.

Even the badly battered housing industry was girding for a comeback. The improvement in housing might still be months off. But, real estate experts said, pent-up demand for new and bigger homes would eventually hit the industry with the force of a tidal wave.

$500,000 Trade Center Is Started at Svirsky's

Samuel Dweres, president of Dweres Construction Company of Miami Beach, Fla., has taken title to the Svirsky Esopus Lake resort property at Ulster Park and a modern shopping center will be constructed on the site.

The shopping center will be built by Miracle Mile Shopping Center, a corporation which recently filed corporation papers. Capitalization of the corporation is $150,000.

Hospital Spring Dance Tonight
The annual spring dance sponsored by Benedictine Hospital Auxiliary will be held tonight at 9 at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Wendell Scherer and his orchestra will play for the occasion. Featured as soloist will be Richard Scherer. (Continued on Page 5, Col. 4)

Future Public Hearings May Involve Others in Labor Offices Beside Beck

Washington, May 18 (AP)—Senators who are probing labor racketeers' problems with organized labor.

Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel, said the probes hoped to start the hearings about mid-June. He said the hearings will involve officials of "at least two unions in addition to the Teamsters." He declined to name them, but said New York is one city the hearings will cover.

The committee recessed its inquiry yesterday. McClellan and Kennedy said it has not yet been decided whether to hold any further hearings before early June.

The committee said previously it would look deeper into Scherfman's own testimony last March that he received from Beck some $85,000 in teamsters union funds to pay for luxury goods and services for Beck and members of the Beck family. Scherfman said he thought at

$3 Billion Cut Is Seen by Capehart Bricker Notes Greatest Uprising Is Viewed From Letters to Trim Budget

Cincinnati, May 18 (AP)—Sen. Homer Capehart of Indiana will vote to cut President Eisenhower's budget "whether I am right or whether I am wrong."

Addressing Republican leaders at a seven-state GOP regional meeting here after the President made a telephoned appeal for support of his budget proposals, Sen. Capehart last night said:

To Vote Cut
"I am going to vote to cut it (the budget)."

Later, at a press conference, Capehart said he thinks cuts can be made in federal aid to education, foreign aid and public housing. He said a three billion dollar reduction is possible.

After the President's telephoned address, Sen. John Bricker of Ohio took the floor and said that letters to him urging budget slashes were "the greatest uprising and experience" he had seen in Washington.

Rep. Richard Simpson of Pennsylvania, congressional campaign committee chief, called the budget "exorbitantly high."

Rep. Simpson added that the country is "forced at high levels to provide monies for Democratic programs."

Sen. Capehart said that the military budget is complicated by the possibility of new equipment becoming obsolete "almost overnight." He said, "we don't know what the enemy is going to do."

Sen. Bricker said that while he "may be critical" of the President, "I'm not one-tenth as critical as I have been of previous administrations."

Urges Party Accord
Meade Alcorn, GOP national chairman, urged party accord, and said that Republican's greatest achievements have stemmed from "reasonable compromise hammered out of honest difference."

The President also stressed the importance of electing a Republican Congress, and said that his legislative program has made little progress in the Democratic-controlled Congress.

He said his stalled programs include civil rights legislation, federal aid for school building and increased postal rates.

The Republican state chairmen of Indiana and Wisconsin said their group may not contribute any funds for the 1958 congressional elections.

Group 'Up In Arms'
Philip G. Kuehn of Milwaukee said last night that Wisconsin Republicans are "up in arms" about what they believe extravagant government budget requests.

The Indiana chairman, Robert W. Matthews, said party members of his state are at odds with national GOP leaders because of (Continued on Page 5, Col. 7)

Stone Defends Lanza Case Role

New York, May 18 (AP)—Former parole commissioner James R. Stone says there was "no venality or corruption" in his restoration to parole of Joseph (Socks) Lanza, convicted Fulton Fish Market extortionist.

Spending most of yesterday and part of last night testifying before the state legislature's "watchdog" committee—which is trying to determine if any "fix" freed Lanza—Stone said his decision on Lanza was an act of "honest judgment."

Stone said he was given the choice, on Gov. Averell Harriman's authorization, of either resigning or facing removal from office. Either action was to be "effective immediately," five days after the parole affair was publicized, he said.

"All the smears I was subjected to convinced me I was finished," Stone testified, "so I resigned. It was the end of me, my complete destruction, after 22 years of service."

Stone, a Harriman appointee, said he would make the same decision in the Lanza case if he had it to do over. He resigned March 30.

With last night's session the committee concluded three weeks of public hearings in the Lanza case. Assemblyman William S. Horan, Tuckahoe Republican and committee chairman, adjourned the hearings subject to his call. He declined to say whether any further public sessions would be held.

Observers noted, however, that several persons who testified (Continued on Page 5, Col. 8)

1. The Chicago Daily News said John T. O'Brien of Chicago, a teamsters vice president, has emerged as a "cleanup" candidate for the presidency of the union. Beck faces AFL-CIO charges that he has brought the labor movement into disrepute. He is up for re-election this fall, but there have been reports high teamster officials want to dump him.

2. Montgomery Ward & Co., Chicago mail order house, sent the rackets committee a letter denying any deal with the Teamsters Union in a 1953 proxy fight with financier Louis Wolfson. In Chicago, a spokesman said the (Continued on Page 5, Col. 8)

Your Life And Mine

By CLYDE HERBERT SNELL
THE ICE-CREAM MAN

Driving on one of our residential streets recently I spied an ice-cream wagon ahead, parked beside the curb, and slowed down to a crawl. I always slow down when I see one of those white trucks—and I hope you do too. One never can tell when a small citizen, so mesmerized by the ice-cream man that he forgets completely, for the moment, that there are such dangerous things as automobiles, may dart out into the street. The thoughtlessness of pedestrians must always be taken into account by the man (or woman) behind the wheel. This is especially important in those situations where distractions are known to abound; as is the case when little folks are under the spell of the tinkle of the little bells on the ice-cream wagon.

It is a miracle, really, how far away little ears can hear the modest tinkle of those bells. They pick up their musical notes above the din and roar of the traffic. They can hear them through the walls of their homes. Before adults have had any inkling at all of the white truck's approach, these delicate little ears have registered that familiar sound, and are busy begging for the necessary coins with which to patronize the palatable-tempting salesman. One wonders sometimes how little ears, that are so deaf to admonitions to hang up their clothes or run an errand to the store, can hear the tinkle of that ice-cream man's bells so far away. That, I guess, is a mystery understood only by God himself. But the appalling discrepancy is with us every day.

Of course those of us who are grown-ups will have to admit that that wagon does carry a very tempting cargo. Even the adults are not immune to the mystic spell cast by the tinkle of those bells. The approach of that little white truck slays many a good intention to cut down on sweets. We have a stultified resolve—until the modest sound of those bells moves in on us. But that sound takes its sharp sword and slashes the resolve to shreds. And before we know it we have patronized the ice cream man—not just to please the children but to satisfy the resistless demands of our own palate as well.

A small boy was trying hard to buy enough money to buy a baseball bat. One night he ended up his bedtime prayer by saying: "O God, help me to save my money to buy a baseball bat. And please, God, don't let the ice cream man come down our street!" Maybe there ought to be some city ordinance to prohibit these trucks laden with palatable-tempting goodies from driving down the streets where the folks live who have shaped up noble resolves, for over-temptation reasons, to leave sweets alone. No—I guess that wouldn't be the solution! The children would hate to part with the pleasure which the "man in white" trucks to their doorstep. So we'll either have to find some way of stopping up the ears of the folks who are already too fat; or discover some miraculous vitamins to bolster their resolve so that they can listen to the tinkle of those little bells without yielding to their lures.

Atomic Test Put Off Again

Atomic Test Site, Nev., May 18 (AP)—Threatening winds forced a third postponement of the atomic test explosion early today.

The shot had been scheduled for 5 a. m., PDT. The midnight weather evaluation bore out earlier apprehensions that winds would drop radioactive fallout material on populated areas of southern Nevada.

The Nevada test organization, in announcing the delay, said merely that the shot "will not be attempted before Sunday."

Graham Enthused By Response to Spiritual Pleas

New York, May 18 (AP)—High up in a balcony, as Billy Graham spoke, another minister stood gesturing rapidly.

In front of him, sat a section of people, intently watching his hands.

They were deaf mutes, among the crowd of 16,500 which last night thronged Madison Square Garden for Graham's New York crusade.

The Rev. Croft Pentz, of Elizabeth, N. J., an expert in sign language, translated the evangelist's words for those who could not hear.

785 Come Forward
This is one of the moving aspects of Graham's big-scale appeal to bring more New Yorkers to dedicate themselves to God. More broadly striking is the large number of people, each evening, who indicate their wish to make such a spiritual reformation.

Last night, the greatest host of people so far—785 men, women and young folks—thronged to the front of the arena in response to Graham's plea that they "surrender their lives to Christ."

This brought to a total of 1,966 the number that have made such decisions in three nights of Graham's preaching.

"I have never in my ministry seen such response so early in a crusade," Graham said. "The Lord is moving mightily in our midst in answer to the prayers of millions."

"This is just the beginning of what I believe is a great spiritual tide that is rising in New York. We can see a renewal of the soul of New York that can affect the whole nation."

Attendance Is High
The turnout, for the third night's rally, climbed upward to 16,500, besting the 13,000 of the previous night. At the opening, 18,500 filled the arena.

The Rev. Pentz, a Seventh-Day Adventist minister who preaches weekly to the non-hearing in New York city's Glad Tidings Tabernacle, is contributing his services to the Graham effort.

He said letters have been sent to about 800 deaf mutes in the New York city area, notifying them he will be at the Graham meetings each Friday, Saturday and Sunday night to translate the sermons.

HONOR ROLL FOR TEMPLE EMANUEL—Dr. Saul Gold (far right) of Temple Emanuel here shown in Toronto, Canada, recently as he accepted an honor roll award that went to the Temple here for its successful drive in behalf of the Combined Campaign for American Reform Judaism. A. B. Polinsky of Duluth, Minn. (left), General Chairman of the Combined Campaign, made the presentation during the 44th Biennial Convention of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Combined Campaign is the financial mainstay of both the UAHF and the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion. The five-day Convention, held April 28 through May 2 at the Royal York Hotel, mapped large-scale expansion of Reform Judaism over the next two years. Reform branch of Judaism now numbers more than 1,000,000 American Jews.

Briefly Told

Chiopee, Mass., May 18 (AP)—The 26th Air Refueling Squadron, now stationed at Westover Air Force Base, will be transferred to the Plattsburgh, N. Y., AFB in August, the Strategic Air Command says.

The SAC also said yesterday that the 99th Air Refueling Squadron would be transferred from Turner AFB in Georgia to Westover as part of the 57th Air Division. The 384th Air Refueling Squadron will remain at Westover.

The SAC said the shifts were being made as part of a long-range program to get maximum utilization of all bases.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—Mrs. R. L. Tichenor of Rochester is the new president of the New York State Chapter of the PEO Sisterhood.

She was elected yesterday at the closing session of the group's annual convention. Ithaca was selected for next year's meeting.

Others elected were: Mrs. E. S. Carmichael of Jackson Heights, first vice president; Mrs. Elbridge Gammill of De Witt, second vice president; Mrs. J. Leroy Thompson of Tarrytown, organizer; Mrs. Edward J. Wilnot of Troy, recording secretary; Mrs. Harvey W. Busch of Buffalo, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Byron W. Downes of Hempstead, treasurer.

Syracuse, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—Dr. Earl Harlan, president of Plattsburgh State Teachers College, was elected president of the New York State English Council last night.

Others elected at the group's fifth annual conference were: Hans Gottschalk of Genesee, vice president in charge of colleges; Fred Bennett of Ithaca, vice president in charge of secondary schools; Miss Dorothy Wells of Oswego, vice president in charge of elementary schools; Miss Elizabeth Mitchell of Niagara Falls, secretary; and David Manly of Newfane, treasurer.

Gaspe, Que., May 18 (AP)—The Most Rev. Albini Leblanc, 63, Bishop of the Gaspe Peninsula, was injured fatally last night in an automobile accident.

Bishop Leblanc died 15 minutes after a car driven by his secretary, the Rev. Laurent Roy, swerved into a ditch near St. Majorique, seven miles west of Gaspe.

St. Leon, Que., May 18 (AP)—A man and his two daughters were killed last night in a car-truck collision near this community 35 miles west of Trois-Rivieres.

Police identified the victims as Eugene Lampron, 67, of nearby St. Paulin, and his daughters Adrienne, 22, and Mrs. Lucien Paquin, 28, of St. Leon. All were passengers in the car.

Garriels, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—Two men and two children were injured yesterday in the collision of a school bus and an automobile near this Adirondack mountain community.

Two other children on the bus escaped injury. Police said an automobile driven by Levi Betters, 77, of Keese Mills, crashed into the rear of the bus and drove the bus into guard rails. The bus was operated by Larry Lanco, 43.

Betters and Catherine Maillette, 6, a pupil aboard the bus, were admitted to Saranac Lake Hospital. Both were reported in good condition.

Lanco and his daughter, Deborah, 3, were discharged from the hospital after treatment.

Veterans' Rights, Benefits Listed

Howard C. Shurtler, county director Veterans' Service Agency, and William Hartman, state veteran counselor NYS Division of Veterans Affairs, submit another in a series of articles on rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen and their dependents.

Scholarships—May 23, 1957 is the final date to apply for New York State Regents War Service Scholarships for Veterans, Series of 1957. A competitive examination to determine winners of this scholarship will be held Saturday, June 8, from 9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. World War 1 and World War 2 veterans should note that this is the last series of regents war service scholarships which will be available to them. Starting in 1958 these scholarships will be limited to veterans with service between June 24, 1950 and July 1, 1955. The total scholarship amounts to $1,400 and is paid at the rate of $350 a year for tuition and fees for a period of four years. It may be used for full or part time study on a graduate or undergraduate level in day or evening classes in any college, university, business, professional, vocational, technical or trade school located in NYS and licensed or approved by the NYS Board of Regents. It may also be used in approved speeded-up programs in which instances the scholarship will cover charges up to $525 a fiscal year. The scholarships will become effective July 1, 1957 and will stop in the spring of 1961. Persons who have received benefits from a Regents War Service Scholarship of an earlier series are not eligible to compete for a scholarship of the 1957 series. Moreover, these scholarships are not in addition to other scholarships. For example, they cannot be used at the same time as the World War 2 or Korean GI Bills or other state scholarships or benefits for educational purposes.

Bonus—The Delaware General Assembly has extended the time for veterans of World War 2 and the Korean campaign to file for a Delaware State Veteran Bonus. Veterans of World War 2 have until January 30, 1958 to file, while veterans of the Korean emergency have until July 1, 1958. Application forms may be obtained from the Veterans Military Pay Commission, P. O. Box 966, Wilmington 1, Delaware.

Navy—Some Navy enlisted personnel entered service through the Selective System during November and December 1955. Those that did will be separated after 21 months of active duty. Moreover, they will be considered to have fulfilled their active duty obligation. No personnel, however, will be released from more than three months of active duty.

Legislation—The U. S. Senate passed an amended version of a bill continuing for two years the privilege extended to overseas servicemen of sending home tax free gifts up to $50 in value. The amended legislation, HR 6304, now goes back to the U. S. House of Representatives for reconsideration.

A bill has been introduced in the House of Representatives, HR 6956, which would provide discharge label buttons for veterans of the Korean campaign. Another measure, HR 5807, which proposes to make the Missing Persons Act permanent and broaden its coverage, is under consideration by the U. S. House of Representatives.

Questions about the rights and benefits of veterans, servicemen and their dependents may be submitted for individual attention to the State Division of Veterans Affairs and the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency, 32 Main street, Kingston. Scholarship application forms and assistance in completing them are available at that office for the asking.

TV Producer Dies
Hollywood, May 18 (AP)—Herbert Allen, producer of the Bob Crosby and Johnny Carson television shows, died at a Hollywood hospital last night. Allen, 43, had been in the hospital about three months. His death was caused by acute hepatitis. Before entering television Allen was an announcer for NBC and CBS radio several years. He was a native of San Francisco.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON

Industries can deduct all expenses in their business before paying income taxes. Most corporations give a quarterly accounting to their share-owners.

Many writers are directing our attention today to the cost of running the Post Office. Many years ago we had the Pony Express delivering mail under the auspices of Wells-Fargo Express. Then there wasn't any tax overhead charged to the consuming public. If there was a profit, Wells-Fargo retained it after its charge-offs.

We speak today of galloping Socialism. The Post Office is an outstanding example. Its operations always show a deficit. The Treasury Department gives it a check to cancel out its overhead—and that is charged to us, the taxpayers.

The money-losing Post Office set-up is a political Socialist instrumentality. If the Post Office could be operated by a group of industrialists, they could well afford to pay the Government a million dollars a year for the privilege. Then they could, by scientific management, save the taxpayers the above losses, and show a profit.

In the U.S.S.R., they do not operate a Post Office with favoritism to those running the shebang.

It is not only the Post Office, but the Hoover Task Force has shown that many hundreds of different businesses in which the Government is involved and competing with its own taxpayers, are a financial and political mess.

Neighbor, we speak of "creeping" Socialism, but the Post Office has galloped into it.

Opposes Bingo Move

Oswego, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—The northern New York Methodist conference was on record today in opposition to legalizing bingo. The conference, at its 85th annual meeting yesterday, also supported proposals for raising the state's legal drinking age from 18 to 21. An anti-bingo resolution adopted by approximately 500 pastors and lay delegates attending the five-day meeting said: "We condemn the use of gambling games by churches or any other organization for it is the broad way that leads to destruction, destroying the individual building blocks of the kingdom: Human character."

Bids Spoil Easy Slam

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

The correct bidding of today's hand is given in the box. Without the ace of spades opening South makes seven hearts. He draws trumps in two leads and plays diamonds. West shows out on the second lead so South finesses against East's jack and discards dummy's two spades on his long diamonds.

When this hand was played in a recent team of four match North and South attained a most miserable result.

North chose to bid two hearts only after West overcalled with one spade. East bid two spades and South jumped to four hearts. West bid four spades and North doubled. North opened the king of diamonds and shifted to the seven of hearts. Eventually West lost five tricks (he couldn't get to dummy to finesse the spade) for a 300 point penalty.

At the other table North was a cockeyed optimist. He chose to open one heart. South responded three diamonds. He was on his way to a slam and who could blame him? North's rebid was four diamonds. He should have tried to sign off with three no-trump.

South had visions of seven and asked for aces by bidding four no-trump. When North showed one ace only South bid six hearts and sat back contentedly.

His content was short-lived indeed. East opened the jack of spades and West took the first two tricks.

Sale for Blind

Closes Wednesday

The annual Kingston sale of articles, made by the blind will close Wednesday, and the committees serving at the sale ask the residents of Kingston and vicinity to visit the sale before the closing date. The Kingston sale is being held at 630 Broadway from May 13-22.

Mrs. Harris Brown is serving as general chairman of the Kingston Sale of articles made by the blind sponsored by the local Lions Club.

The blind make and offer for sale many practical and economical household articles used every day in the home. Every purchase directly benefits the blind, as the selling price of each article is made up of the cost of materials plus the wages paid the blind worker.

Fear Couple Is Trapped in Building Debris

New York, May 18 (AP)—An old, three-story brick structure in the lowest East Side's grimy tenement district crumbled with a roar today. Rescue workers dug through the gas-permeated debris with their hands looking for an elderly couple believed trapped inside.

Five persons lived in the building at 137 Pitt street, an area just east of Manhattan's Chinatown known for its old tenement structures and crowded streets filled with pushcarts.

Sounded Like Bombs

Sam Geletrick, who operates a store in a front building at the Pitt street address, said: "I heard a terrific noise. It sounded like bombs were dropped. I ran through the hall and I saw this pile of dust."

One man, 68-year-old John Sabrygor, escaped from the building after it tumbled. A second tenant, Allan Thomson, about 60, who occupied a third-floor apartment in the building, was rescued after having been trapped near the top of the pile of rubble.

Fumes Envelop Area

Gas fumes enveloped the area as firemen and police dug into the debris. A building adjacent to the collapsed structure was ordered evacuated as a precautionary measure against any possible explosion.

Sabrygor said he heard screams as he fled. Of the six apartments in the building, one was vacant and the woman occupant of another was away. Half an hour after the building collapsed, a fireman heard a voice from the depth of the rubble. Deputy Fire Chief Joseph Mackey ordered the rescue workers to be silent. He peered into the debris and shouted "keep on talking."

Three Are Rescued

New York, May 18 (AP)—Three persons were rescued at 6:20 a. m. today after being adrift 11 hours aboard a small boat in Long Island Sound. The rescued, two men and a woman, spent the night drifting in the boat after its engine failed. They went on the sound to view a fireworks display last night at Ft. Totten, Queens, marking Armed Forces Week. Police said those rescued were Donald Dahill, 33, of (211-20 34th Road) Bayside, Queens, the boat owner; John Cardoli, 26, of (32-29 103rd street) Corona, Queens, and Mary Dowling, 25, of (428 Foch Boulevard), Mineola, L. I. They went home after the boat was towed to the Bayside Public Boat Dock, police said.

Mayflower Dawdles

London, May 17 (AP)—Mayflower II dawdled in mid-Atlantic today, almost standing still in calm seas about halfway between the Canary Islands and the West Indies. Only 20 sea miles in the last 24 hours, the Pilgrim replica ship's skipper, Cmdr. Alan Villiers, said in a radio message. Villiers reported the ship's position at noon yesterday was 21 degrees 54 minutes north and 40 degrees 05 minutes west. She left Plymouth April 20 and is headed for Plymouth, Mass.

Cuts Short Debate

Paris, May 18 (AP)—Premier Guy Mollet cut short parliamentary debate on his new fiscal program early today with a formal demand for a vote of confidence. The vote was set for Tuesday, and Mollet was given a good chance to win. Putting his cabinet's life on the line, Mollet told the National Assembly in effect it must adopt the program or find a new government.

Shandaken

Shandaken, May 18 — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Herdman and children of Winnisnook and Mrs. Beatrice Blowers and children of Rochester were dinner guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Percy White.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kalos of Long Island City visited Mrs. H. Hogstrom Sunday.

Mrs. G. M. Beekman returned home this week from St. Petersburg, Fla., where she spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Van Valkenburg had as guests over the weekend Mrs. Van Valkenburg's father, Jacob Moser, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moser and their sons, Mark and Jonathan, all of Ossining.

Mrs. F. S. Osterhoudt spent the past week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John D. Cox in Pittsfield, Mass.

Billy Heick of the USS Denebola spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heick.

Economy Is . . .

Dr. George Cline Smith, vice president and economist of F. W. Dodge Corp., "is that nothing can contain, for long, the enormous demand pressure dammed up behind our current rate of underbuilding. Something is going to give."

Upward Trend Seen

As for economy as a whole, bankers, industrialists and others who usually make good guesses give this estimate of things to come: Business activity, over-all, should keep on rising. Not as fast as last year, probably, but the trend for the rest of 1957—and certainly for 1958—should be up, not down.

The upward parade of prices should pause for a while. Business costs are sky-high but goods are in great abundance and competition is razor-sharp. This—at least for the time being—should hold price increases in check.

Money to Stay 'Tight'

Because of competitive pressures, many businessmen will find it increasingly difficult to recover increased operating costs by raising prices. Profits of some companies may be caught in a tightening cost-price squeeze.

Money, most likely, will stay "tight." Business still wants and needs huge amounts of new capital for expansion. However, there may be a slight increase in the availability of home mortgage funds.

Those inclined to optimism could point this week to a continued high level of consumer incomes and consumer spending.

Income At Record

Personal income of Americans, at latest count, had climbed to an annual rate of nearly $339.1 billion dollars. That's a new record. It represents a gain of 18 billions in just one year. One big factor in the increase: More people are getting social security checks.

Wage hikes for coal, oil, steel and other workers should push consumer income (and possibly some consumer prices) to still higher levels in the coming months.

Employment is on the upbeat, too. While there isn't as much overtime in the auto factories and steel mills as there used to be, there are more jobs in the trades and services than ever before. For that matter, auto production is picking up a little right now—this week's output of 126,000 cars is the highest in over a month. According to Labor Secretary Mitchell, total employment in the nation this summer will jump to a new high of 68 million.

$500,000 Trade

negotiated the sale as well as representing the principals during incorporation. Harry Gold appeared for the sellers.

Title to the property passed late Friday and today Joseph Clark, Port Ewen contractor, had equipment on the site and began bulldozing operations to process the land. Operation begun today on the east side of route 9-W.

In addition to the main shopping center there will be a service station and other facilities necessary for a modern shopping center.

Residential Use

A portion of the property adjoining the Esopus lake will be developed for residential use with the property owners having access to the lake facilities.

Present plans call for retention of some of the existing buildings, demolishing others and some will be moved to new locations. One plan is to develop the large recreation hall into a modern "steak and sea food" house.

New roadways will be cut through the premises to give direct access to the shopping center which will be erected on the west side of 9-W between the old road and the existing main road.

A new road will be constructed from 9-W to connect directly with the Hercules Powder Company entrance off route 9-W.

In addition to the main shopping center there will be miscellaneous stores around the shopping center.

Owns Florida Land

Included in the plans for future development is the residential area adjacent to the lake. Present plans for the shopping center are for the most modern type of construction to facilitate retail business and for the shops convenience. There is unlimited parking facilities on the site.

Miracle Mile Shopping Centers are already in existence in the metropolitan area as well as in Florida where Mr. Dweres owns considerable property, including a large hotel now under construction, it was reported.

Krumville

Krumville, May 25 — Mr. and Mrs. John Privarnick of Long Island have returned home after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Radtke.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Markle spent Mother's Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Brown in Modena.

The Mother's Day service in the church was well attended. Music was provided by Mrs. Annie Eckert and Rudolph Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. C. Devisscher.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Christensen spent Mother's Day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Christensen.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Every visited Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Katie Davis.

To Promote Flags

The Kingston Lions Club will conduct a house-to-house canvass Tuesday night to promote the display of United States flags on patriotic days, it was announced today.

Members of the club will offer flags for sale to those interested. The flags are three by five feet, with wood standard joined in the center. They can be put away "neatly" into the box that comes with them.

J. Wilson Tinney, chairman of the committee for Patriotic Night, as it is called, said the purpose of the canvass was to increase patriotic spirit in connection with patriotic holidays such as Memorial Day and the Fourth of July.

The canvass will begin about 7 p. m. and continue for a couple of hours.

About 500 of the flags are available, it was reported. Persons who are not contacted Tuesday night and are interested in obtaining flags may contact Mr. Tinney at Herzog's Supply Co.

With each kit there is a pamphlet on the proper use of flags on all occasions.

For Past Presidents

Port Ewen, May 18—The Third District Past President's Parley banquet of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Saturday, June 15 at 1 p. m. at the Casablanca Restaurant, Broadway, Kingston. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Vivian Stadt at Port Ewen. Deadline for reservations is June 5.

Eligible to attend are past county chairmen and past unit presidents of the Legion Auxiliary of Ulster county who are members of the Past Presidents Parley.

Breakfast Party Held

Port Ewen, May 18—A breakfast party was held last week in Judies Restaurant for Agnes Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry of Port Ewen.

She received her first Communion at the 8 a. m. Mass at St. Ursula's prior to the breakfast.

Attending were the Rev. James Kelley, CSSR, pastor of the Church of the Presentation; Mr. and Mrs. I. Prusack, Mrs. Robert Henry and son, Robert; Mrs. Agnes Perry, Mrs. Michael Pugliese and son, Michael; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dempsey and daughter, Eileen; Mrs. Gerain Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Griggs, Miss Mary Perry, Miss Pat Di Palma and Mr. and Mrs. Perry.

munist leftists in this country." Mr. Mayer has been business agent for Local 17 for the past year and reportedly intends to seek reelection in June. He held the post previously, but lost one election before being chosen again last year.

An editorial in The New York Daily News said it was believed that the purpose of AFSEE is "believed to be to furnish a respectable front organization for the U. S. The editorial went on to suggest that the Senate Internal Security Committee "look into this mob without delay."

May Close Prison

Berlin, May 18 (AP)—Soviet Russia and the western allies are discussing proposals to close the Spandau war crimes prison, diplomatic informants said today. Big Four officials said they feel increasingly embarrassed about maintaining the massive fortress prison—designed to house 600 convicts—for the remaining three top Nazi war criminals who they could be jailed elsewhere. It costs more than $100,000 a year to run Spandau. The staff of nearly 100 persons includes a four-power supervisory commission, permanent warders and a platoon of soldiers.

5,000 Mile Target Sure

Sedalia, Mo., May 18 (AP)—A key man in the nation's defense said yesterday it is now technologically possible to build a missile that will hit a target 5,000 miles away with a force equal to all the TNT dropped on Germany by allied bombers in World War 2. The future of freedom itself may hinge on whether we or Russia perfects such a missile, first, Maj. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever told an Armed Forces Day gathering here.

Scores Red Aid

Chicago, May 18 (AP)—Sen. William F. Knowland (R-Calif.) has assailed administration proposals for economic and military aid to two Communist countries because he said such plans would help the Communist world pull out of a crisis. "I do not favor taxing the American people to support Communist economic or political systems abroad," Knowland said yesterday in an Armed Forces Day speech.

Lawyers Strike

Port au Prince, Haiti, May 18 (AP)—Haiti's spreading strike wave has hit the legal profession. In this capital alone some 200 lawyers quit court in protest against a decree by the ruling executive council. Another 35 attorneys struck in the town of Gonaives, 110 miles northwest of Port au Prince, and all courts were reported shut down in the nearby community of Saint-Marc.

Korean Boat Seized

Seoul, May 18 (AP)—South Korean national police said today a South Korean fishing boat was seized by an armed North Korean patrol boat Thursday in the Yellow Sea. The announcement said the 12-ton boat and its five crew members were taken to North Korea.

a reserve unit such as the local one.

Reservists were present at the display to answer questions.

All on Display

Weapons were shown throughout the nation so new they are just going into production, the Associated Press said.

There was a big open house at Stewart Field, showing various types of aircraft, and a parade was scheduled at Newburgh. Poughkeepsie played host to a destroyer escort that was to be open for public inspection today and Sunday.

Parade in New York

In New York city all branches of the service were to take part in Armed Forces Day, featuring a parade of some 25,000 servicemen down Fifth avenue, the Associated Press said.

Contingents from the Army, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, Marine Corps and National Guard were to be in the line of march. Another highlight was to be West Point's Corps of Cadets—2,000 strong.

A fleet of 25 U. S. warships—including the 45,000-ton battleship Iowa—will be open for public inspection.

Exhibited in the parade were to be late-model aircraft and the tools of "push-button" warfare, such as guided missiles.

At Andrews Air Force Base, Md., the gates were open to everyone, including any foreign diplomats who might want to look around, the AP reported.

Missiles, Rockets Shown

On exhibit was the Bomarc long range interceptor missile—designed to fly at supersonic speeds and very high altitude to engage, by electronic control, enemy bombers 200 to 300 miles from the launching site.

Near it was the USAF "Rascal"—a rocket-powered missile designed to be fired by bombers of the Strategic Air Command at such enemy targets as war plants, airfields or harbors.

A hundred yards away, an Army Redstone ballistic missile towered high on its launching stand. This weapon, capable of carrying a nuclear warhead 200 miles, is a forerunner in design of the Army's Jupiter Intermediate Range Ballistic Missile (IRB), intended to have a 1,500 range.

The Navy had on display its Regulus bombardment missile, made for launching from ships and submarines and also capable of an atomic punch at a range of several hundred miles.

Nike, Ajax In Open

The Nike Hercules, newest of the Army's anti-aircraft weapons, was located close to the standard Nike Ajax guided missile. Both in length and girth, the Hercules is substantially bigger than the Ajax—and its unofficially estimated range of 100 miles compares with a reach of 20 or 30 miles for the Ajax model.

Arrayed along with the big, spectacular weapons were all the arms United States fighting men use—down through tanks and artillery to rifles and grenades.

Parked at various points were virtually all types of big military transports and specialized aircraft, including a KC135 Boeing tanker used for refueling the B52 jet bomber in flight, and a Lockheed C130 transport, powered by four turbine engines.

In Washington itself, the military was holding a traditional parade of 9,500 uniformed men and women, members of both regular and reserve components. The march route ran along Constitution avenue.

Secretary of Defense Wilson, cabinet members, Congressmen and diplomats from foreign embassies, including Communist nations, were assigned honor spots in a reviewing stand.

inches at Hobart, Okla., and 1.49 inches at Fayetteville, Ark.

Moderate to heavy overnight rain also fell along coastal areas from central California northward to British Columbia. Brookings, Ore., was doused with 1.15 inches and Newport, Ore., got 1.5 inches.

Contrasting with soggy sections of the Southern Plains and Pacific Coast, the Weather Bureau said the Northern Plains, upper Mississippi Valley, the far southwest and extreme northern New England would have fair weather today.

Mostly in 70s

It was to be warm and humid in the southeast with somewhat higher temperatures in most Middle Atlantic coast states.

Warm and humid weather continued overnight in the southeast where readings were mostly in the 70s. Temperatures in the 60s were recorded in southern Pennsylvania while the mercury was generally 10 to 15 degrees higher than 24 hours earlier in the eastern Great Lakes and north Atlantic coast states where readings were in the 40s and 50s.

Little temperature changes took place in the rest of the nation except for a slight warming in the central Rocky Mountains and western plains.

Some early morning reports: Boston 55 and rain; New York 58 and rain; Washington 63 and clear; Atlanta 67 and clear; Miami 77 and partly cloudy; Detroit 48 and cloudy; St. Louis 67, and partly cloudy; Fort Worth 70 and thunderstorms; Bismarck, N. D. 54 and cloudy; Denver 46 and showers; Phoenix 77 and clear; Los Angeles 63 and partly cloudy; San Francisco 59 and rain and Seattle 57 and rain.

Quake Is Recorded

New York, May 18 (AP)—A "sharp" earthquake in the Aleutians was recorded early today on the Fordham University seismograph, the Rev. Joseph Lynch, director of the university's seismic observatory, reported. Father Lynch said the quake occurred "after a little period of quiet" in earthquake activity in that part of the world. The first shock was recorded here at 1:34:37 p. m. and the second at 1:43:14. The distance was 4,300 miles from here.

Car Leaves Road

William H. Walsh, 48, of Woodstock, was arrested by Kingston state police late last night when his car "drifted" off the Zena-Sawkill road approaching the hamlet of Zena and struck a utility pole and a tree.

Mr. Walsh apparently escaped injury in the mishap, according to troopers.

Mr. Walsh was arrested on a charge of reckless driving and will appear before Justice of the Peace Joseph Forno of Woodstock on May 27.

State police said Mr. Walsh was proceeding west when his car left the right side of the road and continued for more than 200 feet before striking a pole and tree.

several factors, including the federal budget.

Kuehn said Wisconsin Republicans are "worried—they're upset."

He added, "because of the general feeling on the budget, we feel we can't do anything but help our state candidates."

Party of Prudence

Kuehn said Wisconsin people tend toward "rock-bottom conservatism. The Republicans in my state have always looked upon the Republican party as the party of prudence."

"If we don't keep faith with the people, we're going to be hurt."

But he said that there is no threat of schism because "Wisconsin Republicans would back a ticket of any shade rather than vote for a Democrat."

Kuehn said that the Wisconsin situation has "absolutely no connection" with the administration's attitude toward the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy.

Matthews said that three factors contributed to the situation in Indiana: Disagreement over the national budget.

Rumors that the administration would attempt to squeeze out Sen. William Jenner of Indiana in the 1958 elections.

Rumors that a national committee appointment is to be made, circumventing the state chairman.

Matthews said he earlier wrote Alcorn, saying the national committee could expect no financial help from Indiana unless the national group adopts a "hands off Indiana" policy.

The Covington Low, Wide and Handsome

Rooms ..... Six
Bedrooms ..... Three Bathrooms ..... Eight
Cubage:
House ..... 20,500 ft.
Garage ..... 4,000 ft.
Dimensions ..... 59' x 27'

Because of its attractive exterior, "The Covington" would look well in any setting. A combination fieldstone and shingle exterior, as used for the house in the illustration, makes a most appropriate and handsome finish. If a combination finish is used for the exterior, white is the color suggested for the shingles. You can, of course, and with equally attractive results, have an exterior of plain masonry, shingles or clapboards.

Simple landscaping will be most suitable and most effective for a house of this type. A path of stone slabs blends with the informal architecture of "The Covington" and further enhances the charms of both the house exterior and the grounds around it.

There is just enough roof overhang to protect the front entrance which opens on a small entry hall. You'll appreciate the closet in the back wall of the hall, not only when you have visitors' hats and coats to hang up but also when you want a place to keep your family's stormy weather apparel.

To the right is an open archway leading to the living room. Measuring 15'x14'6", the living room is well lighted by the three windowed bay in the front wall. Be certain to reap the greatest possible decorative benefits from this handsome bay arrangement by placing a knickknack or plant display there and by grouping your furniture so as to make this section the focal point of interest in this part of the room.

Decorative Points

The bay wall, of course, have to share decorative honors in the living room with the large fireplace in the back wall of the room. If you want to put that new television set in the living room, you'll find that against the further section of the right wall will make an excellent location.

Connected directly with the living room, by an archway in the right wall, the dining room is 12'x8'6" in dimensions. Two windows in the front wall provide ample light and ventilation for this room; place the dining room set where you will reap the greatest benefits from the light and view through these windows.

In the left back corner of the room is a very convenient china closet. Drawers are at the bottom of this closet and you can use it as a storage place for your clean table linen as well as for your china and glassware.

Stairs to the cellar lead from the small hallway connecting the dining room and the kitchen. Planned as a work center, the 12'x9'6" kitchen is so arranged that you won't waste any steps while performing all those everyday tasks centered around meal-making.

Placed against the right end of the front kitchen wall, the refrigerator is separated from the stove by a long line of working counters, complete with cupboards and cabinets that provide a generous amount of storage space. To the right of the stove, which is located against the wall, is another, and shorter expanse of counter space.

In the back wall of the kitchen is a doorway opening on the back porch which provides protected entrance to the attached garage as well as easy access to the back yard.

Measuring 21'x12' in area, the garage is amply lighted and ventilated by a window in the back wall and a second window in the right wall. There's good overhead storage space in this garage and, if the handy man wishes to install a workbench he

Need More Light In Modernizing

New windows are needed in one out of every two homes being remodeled, according to a Peoria, Ill., designer who specializes in home modernization planning.

His reasons are:

1. More light. "Dark rooms are characteristic of out-dated houses," says the designer. "A good goal is to have 20 per cent as much window area in a room as floor area."
2. Style. If exterior remodeling is intended to give an old home contemporary lines, old-fashioned windows should be replaced with windows more in keeping with modern architecture.

Building materials dealers carry a wide variety of windows in up-to-date styles—fixed-sash picture windows, sliding windows, casement awning, and hopper windows. Even the familiar double-hung sash now has contemporary, horizontal panes.

3. New room construction. A new wing, dormer or enclosed porch is likely to stick out like a sore thumb unless the sash and frames match those of the rest of the house.

Is Your House Winter-Proof?

Here's a quick five-question quiz about your home that will tell you how well prepared you are for the winter. It was devised by Richard J. Wilson, Bridgeport, Conn., weatherstripping expert.

Do your windows and doors fit so loosely that you can see even a glint of light through the cracks?

Can you feel leaking air when you place your hand around the door or window frames?

Do the curtains flutter?

Do your windows ever rattle?

Are your fuel bills higher than you would expect for your type of house?

If any of these answers is yes, Mr. Wilson says, it's a clear sign that modern weatherstripping, by sealing off air leaks, could help cut your fuel bills and increase your comfort in winter.

For Rustic Paneling

"Pecky wood, which has shown tremendous gains in popularity in recent years, is wood that's been attacked by fungi, birds, or insects. It used to be tossed away in the wood scrap pile but is now enjoying a vogue for rustic interior paneling. Small indentations in the paneling give a room a "drift-wood" look.

Waxed Cloth Collects Dust

Here's a tip for housewives who have tired backs from pursuing those elusive "whiskers" that gather in out-of-the-way places such as under beds and dressers and along remote borders of rugs. It is recommended for floors that have been treated with a polishing wax.

Select a large, clean cloth, dip it in cool water and wring it out as dry as possible. Fold the cloth in four thicknesses and then work in about a tablespoon of cream or kitchen wax until the cloth feels moist and waxy.

The treated cloth may then be put under a dry mop or worked by hand and it is sure fire for picking up both dust and "whiskers."

Quarry Tile

Quarry tile, always a favorite for weatherproof terraces, has found new uses in recent years. It is specified more for interior areas—entranceways, kitchen and living room floors, family game rooms and bathroom and bathroom floors. All these areas where a really rugged yet good-looking material is wanted. Besides red, quarry tile now comes in dark brown, buff, blue, green and sand colors.

Place in the Sun

A warped board is crooked, nine times out of ten, because one side has more moisture in it than the other. When such a board is placed in the sunshine with the convex side up, it will usually straighten out in a short time. Nail it up some place promptly, before it warps again.

Fire Prevention

Rags used in painting and cleaning up after a paint job are a fire hazard. The safest thing is to burn them immediately. If they must be saved, spread the rags out to dry. Never wad them up or toss in a pile, for fear of spontaneous combustion.

Removing Fuzz

can put it along the back wall under the window where he'll be sure of plenty of light and also of plenty of room.

To reach the sleeping section of this house, it is necessary to go back through the living room. A doorway in the left section of the back wall opens on a hallway connecting with the two bedrooms, the bath and the bedroom or den. With a large closet in its front wall, one window in the right wall and another in the front wall, the den or bedroom is ideally suited to either purpose. The 11'6"x9'6" room can also be used as a guest room. If the room is to be used permanently as a den-library you can transform the closet area into built-in bookshelves.

Generous in size, the bathroom holds both a tub and a shower and receives ample light and ventilation through the one window in the back hall. There's another all-purpose closet opening on this connecting hallway between the door from the bath and the one leading to the back bedroom. Finding storage space presents no problem at all in a house with as many closets as "The Covington."

With two windows in the back wall and one in the left wall, the back bedroom receives good light and cross ventilation. This 12'4"x11' room also has a large clothes closet.

The front or master bedroom measures 13'6"x12'4" and boasts a generous sized closet as well as good cross ventilation from the two windows in the front wall of the room and the one window in the left wall. Opening off the hallway, directly across from the door to the master bedroom, is the large linen closet. This location is very convenient to all the bedrooms and also to the bathroom.

In the full cement basement of "The Covington," place the heating plant under the living room and the laundry under the kitchen. You'll have plenty of space left for a recreational room, hobby shop, etc.

Blueprints Available

Complete plans for this home are available. Address all requests (mentioning name of home) to Home of the Week, Inc., Dept. KF, 87 Weybosset street, Providence, R. I.

Cement-Base Paint

It's easy to color basement foundation walls with dry powder cement-base paints. These usually comprise Portland cement, lime and mineral pigment. Mixed with water and applied to a damp surface, the paints create a finish like concrete or mortar.

Should Be Shaded

While "insulating glass" is great for keeping heat in a house it is not so effective in keeping out the direct rays of the sun. For this reason, picture windows of insulating glass should be shaded with awnings.

Painting Brickwork

When using exterior oil paint on a brick surface, experts figure that one gallon of the first coat will cover about 200 square feet. The second coat will go twice as far—about 400 square feet per gallon.

Home Owners!

Here's a sound investment for your home that will pay big dividends!

Extra money doesn't come to many of us—very often! Yet, how many times have we hoped to get enough together to add the much needed rooms in the attic... or to finish off the basement so our family might enjoy more "living and playing" room? Sure, we can think of a hundred ways to spend the "extra" money! But, what better way than home improvement, where the dollars will do the most good, today and every day for years to come.

Visit our showroom and see the handsome display of Weldwood Plywood panels. We'll be glad to explain the easy "step-by-step" installation directions; show you how to finish the panels; and tell you how little a whole room really costs.

Install Weldwood® panels for attractive, low priced, yet beautiful wood walls which will last a lifetime. You can panel your own walls easily and quickly with Weldwood. And (this you'll like) once your paneled walls are finished you can forget about maintenance... no painting or repairing. They need only occasional waxing. All in all, Weldwood paneled walls are the most economical you can own.

Stacking Tables Growing Popular

Stack on stack furniture continues to grow in popularity. If it isn't tables that are stacked for use in tiered effects, then it is commodes that are stacked one on top of the other or two on two in the interests of space saving and utility.

As one manufacturer puts it: "If the man of the house flies the coop, all you do with the Mr. commode is add it to the Mrs. commode, and you won't even miss him."

Many of these correlated units are styled for use in any room—living, bedroom, dining or den. They are designed so they may be used interchangeably and can go with ease from a five-room to a one-room apartment, if necessary.

Further Effects

When it is important that an enameling job dry in a hurry, place it in the sun to dry. Enamels labeled "quick drying" are dry enough for a second coat in a half hour or so under the warmth of the sun's rays.

Masking Tap Tip

When you apply masking tape, leave one end free so that it can be easily grabbed by the fingers when it's time to strip off the tape.

Streak, Spot Prevention
Ugly stains on white painted exterior walls often come from corrosion of screens, gutters, flashings, down-spouts, nails, hinges and other outside hardware on your house. Painting or varnishing of these metal surfaces this fall will aid in eliminating such unsightly blemishes.

Don't Worry

"Fluff," the material that may show up on the surface of new carpets and rugs, is merely loose bits of pile material left in floor covering during manufacture. It does not indicate trouble with your carpet, as every tuft is still intact. Just get busy with the sweeper when the loose ends work up to the surface.

Accident Proof

Even a 4-year-old can flick on the switch that runs a power tool. As a safeguard, all outlets for power tools should be on one circuit—and that should be master-switched either in some inaccessible or secret position, or in a manner that can be padlocked.

For Wet Umbrellas

A colorful plastic wastebasket makes a handy container for wet umbrellas. It may be put back in its proper place after the company departs.

A meeting of the Mid-Hudson Chapter, National Association of Cost Accountants, will be held at the Nelson House, Poughkeepsie, on Monday, May 20, at 6:30 p. m.

George A. Hewitt, national vice president, will be the guest speaker.

Hewitt, a resident of Philadelphia, has been a member of the chapter since 1931. He served the Philadelphia Chapter as director from 1947; vice-president in 1948 and 1949; and president in 1950.

He served on the national search and education committees and on the national board of directors for the 1953-55 term. Mr. Hewitt is a member of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Eye Placement For Fixtures

If you're planning to build a new home, be sure to consider the placement of your furniture before lighting fixtures are installed. Many dining areas today are planned for off center placement of the dining table.

If you plan to keep your table against a wall, arrange to have the fixture installed so that it is over the table even though it is off center.

New kinds of dining room fixtures with a center spotlight make it more important than ever that the table and fixture be related so you can enjoy the additional sparkle from the spotlight on your table. Some ceiling fixtures travel on a track to follow the table if it has to be moved to accommodate guests.

BOICEVILLE YOUTH WINS CONTEST—Winning poster in the National Maritime Day poster contest is shown by Congressman J. Ernest Wharton of the 29th District. The winner is James Henry Reuss, 17, of Boiceville, a student in Grade 12 at the Onteora Central School. His teacher is Mrs. Milton Wagenfohr of Kyserike. The poster shows a globe of the world with an American flag stuck into the United States. The words read, "At Home Around the World." This poster was one of 53 prize winners in a national high school art contest sponsored by the American Maritime Industry to find a poster for use during the week including National Maritime Day, May 22. The top poster will be displayed on both sides of every United States Post Office truck in America between May 17 and May 25. National Maritime Day honors America's merchant fleet—from luxury liner to cargo ship, from giant oil tanker to banana boat. The day was set aside in 1935 by joint resolution of Congress to mark the sailing of the American steamship, Savannah, in 1819 on the first transoceanic voyage by steamship.

The prospective bride, daughter of the late Stanley Hamilton Dempsey, is a graduate of the Academy of St. Ursula and the College of Mount St. Vincent. She holds a master of fine arts degree from Fordham University. She is a member of the English Department at Kingston High School.

Her fiancé is an alumnus of the College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, Mass. He is past grand knight of Crusader Council 2706 of the Knights of Columbus. He is studying at New York Medical College, Flower and Fifth Avenue Hospital in New York city, where he is a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa medical fraternity.
A June wedding is planned.

Blue Shield Benefits To Ulster Residents

Ulster county subscribers to United Medical Service, New York's Blue Shield, received benefits for medical and surgical care amounting to $347,097.88 during 1956 as against $267,120.17 during 1955, Dr. Louis H. Bauer, chairman of the board, announces in the annual report for 1956.

Benefits to subscribers in the 17 New York state counties served by UMS totaled $36,871,350.23 as against $28,714,000.00 for the previous year. From the founding of UMS in 1944 to the end of 1956, payments amounted to $167,794,091.

Year-end enrollment in all 17 counties reached 4,404,652, a net increase of 455,474 over the 1955 total.

According to the report, the total enrollment includes more than 20,000 New York city employees who joined UMS at their own expense, rather than take advantage of the city's contribution toward a type of coverage which does not offer free choice of physician.

One million cases were handled during the year. Women received 55 per cent of the total payments; men, 27 per cent; and children, 18 per cent.

Veteran Scholarships Are Now Available

The 1958 series of Regents Scholarships for Medicine and Dentistry recently announced will be of interest to many veterans residing in New York state, according to the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs and Howard Shurter, director of the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency. "While one of the requirements for eligibility is attendance at an approved college for at least one semester during the 1956-57 college year," said Mr. Shurter, "this requirement will be waived for candidates in military service during that period."

These scholarships, one hundred in all, range in value from $350 to $1,000 a year for four years depending on the financial ability of the applicant. To be eligible, a candidate must have completed prior to the effective date of the award a pre-professional program in medicine or dentistry in an approved college, but must not have matriculated for professional study in a medical or dental college.

Applications for the scholarship examination must be filed by May 23, 1957. "For that reason," said Director Shurter, "Empire State veterans who are interested should get in touch immediately with the State Division of Veterans Affairs and the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency at 32 Main street, Kingston, for complete information on eligibility requirements and application forms."

Art Exhibit Is Held
Students of Mark Vukovic will hold an exhibition of paintings at the Governor Clinton Hotel on Sunday.

MAY GUEST GO TO BED?

A letter tells me: "I am used to going to bed early and when I don't get my proper rest I am miserable the next day. When I am a guest over a weekend in the house of people who never seem to go to bed, could I be considered rude if I suggested going to bed?"

If it is a house you go to often, and there are no outside guests for you to help entertain, you can perfectly well tell your hostess frankly that you would like to go to bed. But if your hostess is not a really intimate friend and especially if other guests have come in for the evening, you are obliged by courtesy to stay up until the guests leave. Of if there are no guests, you should wait until your hostess makes a move to go to bed.

Dressing for Junior Prom

Dear Mrs. Post: For the past several years our high school has been having a Junior Prom at which the girls dress in evening dresses and the boys in informal suits. I contend that this is very incorrect and that either the girls should wear informal dresses or the boys should wear tuxedos. I would very much like to have your opinion on this. Is there any other type of suit that the boys might wear and still be correct without going to the expense of renting tuxedos?

Answer: The girls do not have to give up wearing evening dresses because the boys are not wearing tuxedos. It would be quite all right for young high school boys to wear blue suits and white shirts to the dance. Sports jackets and slacks would not do.

Introducing Oneself

Dear Mrs. Post: When there is no one to introduce the wedding guests to the mothers receiving at the reception-room door, should strangers introduce themselves or merely say how-do-you-do and pass on to make room for the others coming?

Answer: They announce themselves as they shake hands—"I'm Mrs. John Smith," "I'm Henry Jones," etc.

One reader asks how to introduce family and friends. Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personally. Leaflet E-17, "Introductions," describes how to make introductions and how to reply to an introduction. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Kingston Daily Freeman, P.O. ## Reservation Deadline Set for Republican Women's Luncheon

All members and friends of Ulster County Women's Republican Club are reminded that reservations for the annual spring luncheon should be made before Wednesday.

The luncheon will be held May 25 at the Gov. Clinton Hotel.

Members taking reservations are Mrs. Mollie Winne and Mrs. Katherine Schleede.

Guest speaker for the event will be Mrs. Ruth Kessler Toch, assistant attorney general of the state of New York.

Mrs. Toch is a member of the National Council of Women's National Republican Club and is secretary of the New York State Bar Association Committee on administrative law. She is also national chairman of the National Association of Women Lawyers and chairman of the public affairs committee of the Zonta Club of Albany.

All newcomers in the area, who are interested in this luncheon, are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Hubert Smith, president of the group, has personally expressed her desire to see new residents at the luncheon.

Garden Club Members Hear Westchester Planning Director; Urges Awareness

At a meeting of Ulster Garden Club held recently in Ridgely Casino, Stone Ridge, Hugh Pomeroy, director of planning for Westchester county, said that great awareness of a city's needs must accompany plans for its expansion.

In planning for Kingston, Mr. Pomeroy pointed out that consideration must be given to all characteristics of a city, such as historic homes, old trees, as well as outmoded buildings and traffic routes. He said that arteries of transportation must be provided, without ruining sound business districts or streets, also good parking, new public build-

Miss Enis Ferlini Weds Peter Fisher In Double Ring Ceremony in Phoenixia

MR. AND MRS. PETER R. FISHER

(Photo Workshop)

Miss Enis Theresa Ferlini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ferlini of Phoenixia, became the bride of Peter Robert Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter G. Fisher of 19 Liberty street, in a double ring ceremony Saturday, May 11, before a nuptial Mass in St. Francis De Sales Church in Phoenixia.

The Rev. Edwin Egan officiated. Bridesmaids included Lena and Mary Jean Ferlini, sisters of the bride, and they wore the same styled gowns as the honor attendant. All the attendants carried lace and satin ribbon marked the pews.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white silk gown fashioned with a modified long torso, long tapered sleeves and a bouffant skirt terminating in a circular court train. The bodice and neckline of the gown were accented with medallions of Alencon lace. A bridal cap in Queen Anne style secured the fingertip French illusion veil. She carried a lace covered prayer book with white cymidium orchids.

Miss Nanette Ferlini, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of white nylon sheer over aquamarine taffeta embellished with a rose pattern fashioned with a square neckline, fitted bodice and very full floor length skirts featuring back panels of aqua organza. A jeweled crown secured a tulle flirtation veil.

Bridesmaids included Lena and Mary Jean Ferlini, sisters of the bride, and they wore the same styled gowns as the honor attendant. All the attendants carried lace and satin ribbon marked the pews.

Louis Fisher, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Serving as ushers were Harold Johnson and William DuBois.

A reception was held at the Governor Clinton Hotel for approximately 150 guests.

The bride is a Kingston High School graduate and is employed by IBM in Kingston.

The bridegroom, also a Kingston High School graduate, is an employee of IBM in Kingston.

The couple, following a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., will make their home in Kingston.

The Mature Parent

Inflexible Judgment of a Child's Character Is Unreal

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Relatives were visiting Wendell's grandparents. Among them was his cousin Betty, aged nine, senior by two years.

After lunch, their Grandma suggested that Betty teach Wendell a certain card game. The instruction was unclear. After losing the first game to Betty, Wendell wanted to check the safety of a slingshot he'd left in the car. But his mother, on to this evasive strategy, said, "No, play another game with Betty, dear."

So he lost two more games to his cousin. When he found himself left Old Maid for the third time, the defeat was too heavy to bear. Shoving cards wildly to the floor, he threw his queen of spades at Betty, yelling, "You're the Old Maid, not me—and you're a cheater too!"

In the ensuing uproar, Wendell's aunt passed angry moral judgment on him. "He's just spoiled, that's all!" she cried. "He just has to have his own way."

The pronouncement had, of course, no basis in fact. Wendell had resisted defeat not because he was "spoiled" but because he had not yet acquired the self-assurance he needed to tolerate defeat. His deficiency was not one of character, but of experience.

Unfortunately, he didn't know this. So he thought his aunt's judgment of him was right and assumed that he suffered from a permanent character flaw. Without quite knowing it, he thought, "Hereafter I will avoid competitive games whenever possible lest I again expose myself as 'spoiled'."

Today, though Wendell has developed the skills he needed to play many kinds of games, he prefers to watch others play them to joining in them himself.

Since children are in a process of continual change and growth, it is unrealistic to pass inflexible moral judgments on their characters.

If corrected kindly, the Johnny who lied to us today will in three months have developed the strength to admit unpleasant truth. The Mary whose carelessness seems such a problem needs only to lose that new ball-point pen of hers to begin to express more responsibility. It is only when we treat these passing deficiencies as permanent character flaws that Johnny and Mary do not outgrow them.

Why do we treat them as permanent flaws?

For one reason only: We have not become aware of how we ourselves have outgrown misjudgments of us.

Milton Apple Orchard Sold

A 91-acre commercial apple orchard and nine-room Colonial residence in Milton, N. Y., has been sold by Paul Todaro, according to Previews Inc., The National Real Estate Clearing House, marketing agents. The property, which fronts for 1,000 feet on Indian Road, was purchased by R. Stanley Ferguson of Warwick, N. Y. The selling broker was Guy T. Torsone of Highland.

The orchard includes about 1,000 bearing trees. There are 10 acres of woodland. The residence, a two-story clapboard, was remodeled in 1948. In addition to three master bedrooms and a bath there is a living room with a fireplace and built-in bookcases, a den and a dining room with a large picture window. Also included in the sale are a six-room tenant cottage and a garage-barn.

College Park Has Plans to Speed Up Building of Homes

An unexpectedly large volume of home sales at College Park, in Red Hook, has brought about an acceleration in construction schedules, according to L. William Kay II, president of College Park Development Corp., which plans a park-like community of 350 homes on approximately 200 acres of meadowland. Located on Linden avenue, the community enjoys a quiet country atmosphere, within a half-mile of the Red Hook School.

Road construction for Section One was begun this week, a month ahead of schedule. It was the first step in a master plan for the self-contained residential park that will include a neighborhood shopping center, houses of worship and a recreation area with children's play park and swimming pool. The builders will also install a private water plant to serve the community.

Ralph Pinner, noted land engineer, was in charge of original site planning. The present model, called the "Northport" is a contemporary ranch design with covered entrance patio, living room with large picture window, specially designed kitchen with built-in wall oven and counter-top range. A separate utility room, equipped with a Delco General Motors heating unit, adjoins the kitchen. The plan features three bedrooms and a unique bath arrangement that affords the convenience of an extra lavatory.

Construction of the first group of homes in section one will begin shortly. A new two-story Colonial model, providing potentially for four bedrooms, will be introduced within two weeks.

Boy Scout News

St. Joseph's Troop Has Charter Night

The annual charter presentation and parents' night was held by Troop 3 this week in the school hall following an investment service at 7 o'clock at St. Joseph's Church.

A ceremony symbolic of the father and son relationship in scouting opened the evening's program. William Leehive, committeeman, welcomed the scouts and their parents. Following his welcome he presented Charles Thurin, Explorer adviser, with a 15-year pin in recognition of his work with the scouts.

Boys who had earned advancements in rank during the past year were recognized by committeemen as follows: Tenderfoot scouts named by John Machione were: Michael Angelo, Lawrence Bruck, Frank Cardinale, Andrew Daly, Philip Denton, John Fish, John Flanagan, Michael Hart, Charles Hofstatter, Michael Kennedy, Philip McDonald, Frank Murray, Lansing Naylor, Robert Provenzano, Daniel Pugliesi, Thomas Rigney, William Rogers, William Sheeley, Stanley Skora, Gary Terwilliger, Morgan Turner, and Thomas Vadenola; Second class scouts by Wesley Young: Frank Cardinale, Philip Denton, John Flanagan, James Godwin, Michael Hart, Dennis Herwig, Charles Hofstatter, Henry Langley, Philip McDonald, Lansing Naylor, Daniel Pugliesi, Robert Rundle, Gary Terwilliger, Morgan Turner; First Class Scout Robert Geuss by Nicholas Reis Jr.; Life Scout John Zacheo by Willet Titus; and Eagle Scouts Andrew Angstrom, Jon Angstrom, Fred Barthel and John Secreto by Father Glancy. The mothers of these scouts were presented with miniature pins corresponding to the ranks which their sons had earned during the year.

Edward Gardner, chairman of the troop committee, recognized the following boys who had earned merit badges during the year: Andrew Angstrom 8, Jon Angstrom 7, Fred Barthel 1, Francis Browne 1, Robert Cloonan 1, Paul Colburn 1, John DiMuccio 3, Richard DiMuccio 1, Richard Duffy 1, Richard Geuss 4, Robert Godfrey 1, James Godwin 1, Michael Hart 1, Henry Langley 1, James Rundle 1, John Secreto 1, Ronald Setera 3, John Zacheo 6.

Mr. Gardner then introduced Edward Safford, district commissioner, who made the charter presentation. Service pins were presented to the boys by Committeeman Ed Conte as follows: One-year pins to Robert Geuss, James Godwin, Dennis Herwig, Paul Hyatt, Henry Langley, Robert Rundle, Frank Storm and Gary Terwilliger; two-year pins to Richard Barthel, Henry Bruck, Robert Cloonan, Richard Geuss, Robert Godfrey, James Rundle and John Zacheo; three-year pins to Andrew Angstrom, Robert Aprea, Paul Colburn, John DiMuccio, Richard DiMuccio, Richard Duffy, John Secreto, Ronald Setera; four-year pins to Jon Angstrom, Fred Barthel, George Holosopple; five-year pin to John Whitaker.

Perfect attendance pins were awarded by Dr. Angstrom, assistant scoutmaster, to Andrew Angstrom, Jon Angstrom, Robert Aprea, John DiMuccio, Henry Langley, Gary Terwilliger and John Zacheo.

The coveted gold honor medal was awarded to Andrew Angstrom and the silver honor medal to John DiMuccio by Mr. Thurin.

Before closing the evening's events Mr. Leehive expressed the deep appreciation of the scouts and the committeemen for the constant leadership given by the troop by its Scoutmaster William Sill, Assistant Scoutmaster Dr. Clement Angstrom, and Explorer adviser Charles Thurin, and to Father Glancy for his faithful help.

Saugerties Romps Over Marlboro, 16 to 7, for 11th Triumph

Riozzi Gets 3 Triples, 1 Double To Pace Assault Kugelman Gains Win In Relief Role

Saugerties High bounced back with vengeance after having its 10-game winning streak snapped to wallop Marlboro Central, 16-7, yesterday at Marlboro.

Shortstop Eddie Riozzi paced the Sawyers to their seventh UCL win in eight games with three triples and a double in six trips to the plate. Saugerties rapped out 12 hits in all in sending Marlboro down to its sixth setback in nine starts.

Saugerties rolled up a big early lead and then staved off a desperate five-run rally in the seventh. Marlboro succeeded in knocking out Paul Wengert in the uprising, but was quelled by Skip Kugelman who reappeared on the mound for the second time in the game.

Kugelman took over from started Don Mornille in the third and blanked the home team through the next four frames. With a comfortable 16-2 lead, Coach Bill Straub sent Wengert to the hill in the final frame, but had to call on Kugelman once again to nail it down when Marlboro started its too-late surge.

Jim Erceg, Billy Zeilman and Wengert each had two hits with one of Erceg's being a double. Mornille also had a double. Fran Fino paced the losers with a homer and a single. Butch Porcelli had a two-bagger.

Mike Caserto was the starting and losing pitcher. He went three frames before giving way to John Filippelli. Sam Mandia finished up.

NY-Penn Loop Aid Plea Denied

Buffalo, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—A bid by the New York-Pennsylvania Class D Baseball League to get $5,000 from a major league fund to help an ailing franchise has been turned down.

Vince McNamara, president of the league, said last night he had asked William DeWitt, administrator of the major's half-million dollar fund to help the minors, to reconsider the decision.

He said the NYP league had called in the Bradford, Pa., franchise because the club failed to meet its obligations. The money would have been used, he said, to move the club to Hornell.

McNamara, quoted DeWitt as saying the fund committee felt it couldn't use the money to start new clubs. McNamara claimed it was a question of continuing the franchise in a new city.

He said that Earl Johnson, a Buffalo sports figure, had agreed to put up $5,000 of his own, matching the fund's $5,000, and to operate the franchise at Hornell.

Hayes Keglers Take Crown In Women's Classic Loop

Hayes Lincoln-Mercury keggers clinched the Women's Classic championship Friday night by tying Team No. 8, 1½ to 1½, while Babcock's were knocking off runnerup Manhattan Bowling Balls, 3 to 0.

The new champs finished with a 66-42 won-lost record. Manhattan wound up second with 63½-44½ and Babcock's third with 59-49.

Hayes' five is made up of June Van Kleef, Betty Saban, Tess Moss, Dot Walther and Nellie Alverson. Nellie paced her club last evening with a 511, June hit 484 and Dot 400.

Mary Donnelly of Ferraro Mfg. Co. won best-of-night honors with 532 on 172, 168 and 192. Mary Wyatt shot 430, Dot Donnaruma 503, Dot La Rocca 520, Evelyn Gross 471, Shirley Will 445, Helen Broskie 462, Dot-

Gordon the Hero Onteora Wins, 4-3

Bruce Gordon's single scored Bruce Weiderspeil from third base and enabled Onteora Central to capture a 4-3 extra-inning victory over Highland High yesterday at Boiceville.

Weiderspeil led off the eighth inning with a walk and moved all the way to third on catcher Chuck Mazzetti's error and a wild pitch. After Dick Craig flied out, Gordon came through with the payoff hit.

The winning blow broke up a neat hurling duel between Onteora's Lou Vanacore and Dave Burdash. Each pitcher surrendered just four hits in going the route. Both struck out six while Vanacore walked three and Burdash 11.

Uphill Battle

Coach Tom Wheeler's club had to fight an uphill battle to win. Highland got all its runs in the third and held a 3-0 lead going into the sixth when the Indians finally broke the ice with a run. In the seventh, Onteora pushed two more tallies over to send the game into extra innings.

The victory hiked the Indians' loop mark to 5-3 and moved them into sole possession of third place. Highland is 3-5 and fifth. The boxscore:

Hogan Leads Snead Golf

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., May 18 (AP)—The stage is set today in the semi-final round of the Sam Snead Golf Festival for the men to separate themselves from the boys.

Bunched within two strokes at the head of the pack of 47 pros seeking $10,000 in prizes are two 45-year-old topnotchers and a pair in their twenties.

The old terror, Ben Hogan, is the front man going into the last 36 holes with 131 strokes, nine better than par for the 6,497-yard old white course.

One shot behind him are Snead, the host pro being honored for his 20th year at the Mountain Resort links, and Paul Harney, 27-year-old from Worcester, Mass.

Another stroke back is Billy Casper, 26-year-old from Bonita, Calif., 12th highest money winner of last year and champion this year at Phoenix and the Kentucky Derby open.

Harney surrendered the lead to Hogan yesterday and the sub-par shooting should continue hot and heavy. Seventeen of the field are under par after the first two rounds on the mountain course where Hogan tied a world's record of 259 for 72 holes in 1950.

Famine Is Over

New Paltz Posts First Win As Rondout Valley Bows, 4-3

The old axiom that anything can happen in baseball was proven once again yesterday as winless New Paltz Central rose from the depths of the UCL cellar to slap down Rondout Valley Central, 4-3, at Kerhonkson.

It was the Huguenots' first win after seven unsuccessful tries. Moreover, it marked their first victory in one of the three major sports (football, basketball and baseball) since early in last fall's grid season. New Paltz went without a win through the entire basketball season and only won one football game.

The defeat was a bitter one for Coach Hal Ross' club which just the day before had knocked Saugerties High from the ranks of the undefeated. On the other hand, it was a sterling triumph for the happy Huguenots who have searched long and hard for that initial win.

Credit for the success must go to unheralded Tom Greger who tossed a neat one-hitter in his first start of the season. John Mustion's double ruined the no-hit bid. The blow was of the fluke variety and didn't travel much past the infield. Mustion rapped a grounder to third in the sixth, but the ball took a bad hop over Floyd Diebold's head and he was on.

Greger fans Nine

Greger struck out nine and walked five and was scored on in the first and then again in the sixth (twice). New Paltz got four runs in the second and fourth and won it with two in the fifth.

Bill Smith surrendered just five hits in taking the loss. He fanned five and walked seven. The loss squared Rondout's mark at 4-4 in the loop.

High Jump Cager

Xavier's 6-5 soph forward and center, Cornelius Freeman, holds the Ohio interscholastic high jump record of 6 feet 7 inches. He's the Musketeers' top scorer with a 35.1 average and should prove a handful for any NIT opponent.

New York (NEA)—Bob Gardner set a St. John's University record when he high jumped 6 feet 5½ inches in the Knights of Columbus Games at Madison Square Garden.

Chiefs Receive Financial Aid

(By The Associated Press)

The Syracuse Chiefs, fourth in the Eastern League and in the midst of a three-game losing streak, have scored an important victory off the baseball diamond.

A committee of businessmen, sports writers and sportscasters yesterday raised $3,600 in cash to keep the club operating. An additional uncounted amount of pledges was obtained.

Owner Joe Reardon said the team definitely would open in Syracuse Tuesday. He said also that arrangements had been made with Syracuse officials of the internal revenue service for settlement of an $11,000 tax lien placed against the club Thursday.

At Binghamton, the Triplets sloshed into a tie with Schenectady for the league lead by posting a 5-4 victory over the Chiefs, while Albany was taking the measure of the Blue Jays 10-2 at Schenectady.

The Reading Indians went 10 innings at Springfield before beating the Giants 4-3.

Management Wins Crown

Highland Man Is Held on Charge Of Abandonment

Charles Williams, 35, of RFD Highland, who was picked up last week by County Investigator Arthur H. Brown, Undersheriff Clayton W. Vredenburg and Deputy Sheriff Donald Baumont, on a fugitive from justice warrant which charged grand larceny and bigamy, alleged to have been committed in Johnson City, Tenn., will not be returned to Tennessee. He is being held for Putnam county authorities for abandonment.

Williams was picked up last Saturday on a message from Tennessee which requested his return there for prosecution. On being arraigned before County Judge Louis G. Bruhn, Williams waived extradition and was committed to the county jail to await arrival of Tennessee authorities. Later the local officials were notified the charges had been withdrawn and Williams was released on the Johnson City charge and held for the Putnam county authorities for abandonment and car theft. He was held in jail pending arrival of transfer officers.

Commuters Delayed

New York, May 18 (AP)—Some 20,000 Westchester county and Connecticut commuters were delayed as much as an hour last night by train breakdowns on two of the three tracks out of Grand Central Station. About 125 rush-hour trains were delayed. Both of the trains that broke down belonged to the New Haven Railroad. Service was officially restored by 6:08 p. m. after 30 minutes of suspension at the terminal. One New Haven train developed motor trouble near the New York Botanical Gardens in the Bronx. Another train, en route to Springfield, Mass., also developed motor trouble—at the Morrisania station in the Bronx.

Timetable Of Rescue From Well

Manorville, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—The following is a timetable of events in the dramatic rescue of 7-year-old Benjamin Hooper Jr., entombed 21 feet in a sandy well pit for almost 24 hours:

Thursday:
7:30 p. m.—Benny falls in well. Father calls police and firemen.
8:20 p. m.—Firemen arrive with oxygen equipment and pump air down to Benny.
8:30 p. m.—Firemen and volunteers start digging hole next to well.

Friday:
3 a. m.—Diggers 21 feet down, begin cutting horizontally to Benny.
6:10 a. m.—Shoring of cross tunnel collapses. Digging begins anew.
7:30 a. m.—Physician says "probabilities are against the rescuers."
Noon.—Sand buries Benny's one free hand.

7:10 p. m.—Diggers reach boy. At first he seems to be dead.
7:40 p. m.—Benny moves, opens eyes, is brought out of hole. Hushed crowd shouts relief and happiness.
8:45 p. m.—First hospital report says Benny is "doing all right."
10:30 p. m.—Hospital says Benny reacting "nicely" to treatment and is "able to talk and ask for food."

Midnight.—Benny somewhat restless, apparently coming out of shock.
Saturday:
1 a. m.—Benny given beef broth, hot tea with sugar and ginger ale. Boy also given antibiotics against possibility of respiratory infection.
3:30 a. m.—Hospital listed the boy's condition as "fair to good."

Twilight Meeting In Milton May 21

A twilight meeting has been announced by William H. Palmer, Ulster County Agricultural Agent, to be held at the Hepworth Farm on Route 9W, Milton, Tuesday, May 21, at 7 p. m. Plans for the summer spray program will be discussed as well as materials to use. The situation on insect and disease developments will be reviewed by Bill Mills and Paul Wooley of Cornell.

Deaths Are Probed

Albany, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—Authorities today were investigating the deaths of two men who, police said, had been drinking a concoction that included wood alcohol. One of the men James Dewitt Zink, was found yesterday under a ramp leading to the Albany-Rensselaer bridge across the Hudson river. The other man, found with Zink, died later in the Veterans Administration Hospital. He was identified as Wallace W. Levech, 34, of Westerville, Oneida county.

Briscoe in Dublin

Dublin, Ireland, May 18 (AP)—Mayor Robert Briscoe of Dublin got home last night from a trip to the United States. The mayor predicted that the number of American tourists visiting Ireland would be doubled this year and forecast an increase in trade between the two countries—particularly in textiles and whiskey.

NOTICE OF COMPLETION OF SCHOOL ASSESSMENT ROLL

Notice is hereby given that the Assessor of the City of Kingston has completed his School Assessment Roll for the school fiscal year, 1957-1958. That a copy thereof has been left at his office in the City Hall where it may be seen and examined by any person until the THIRD THURSDAY OF MAY next, and that on such day at nine o'clock in the forenoon said Assessor will attend at the City Hall in said City to hear and examine all complaints in relation to such assessments as provided by Section 32-A of the City Charter as amended.

GEORGE W. MOORE, City Assessor

Dated: April 30th, 1957.

INVITATION TO BIDDERS

Transportation of School Children
The Board of Education of Central School District No. 1 of the Towns of Marlborough, Rochester, Rosendale and Wawarsing, Ulster County, invites the submission of sealed bids for the bus transportation of the children of the Central School District from September 1, 1957 to June 30, 1958.

All bids must be returned to Harold B. Rich, School District Clerk, Kerhonkson, N. Y., no later than 8:30 p. m. E.D.S. time May 28, 1957. Bids will be publicly opened and read, at the above time, at a meeting of the Board of Education in the Marlborough Elementary School, Stone Ridge, N. Y. Specifications for the various bus routes and form of bid proposals may be obtained from Harold B. Rich, Clerk of the District, Kerhonkson, N. Y., or at the school offices in Stone Ridge and Kerhonkson. Bids will be received on the following:

Bus Route No. 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10-11-12-13-14-15-16-17-18-19-20-21-22-23-24-25-26-27-28-29-30-31.

Each bidder, in order to qualify for the award of a transportation contract, must conform to all rules and regulations of the State Department of Education and the Public Service Commission, New York State, as set forth in Law Number 100, State Department of Education, Albany, N. Y., entitled "Transportation."

With a Board of Education amendment of, at least, $5,000.00 personal liability insurance per pupil.

In addition to the above, the following provisions will be considered at the time of the awarding of bus contracts:

1. Bids will be awarded on a one year basis only.

2. Bids on combinations of bus routes and/or bids on single routes as outlined in the specifications, will be considered by the Board of Education. All combination bids must also include a bid for each separate route in the combination.

3. The Board of Education reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the Board of Education, Central School District No. 1, Towns of Marlborough, Rochester, Rosendale and Wawarsing, Ulster County.

HAROLD B. RICH, School District Clerk, May 17, 1957.

Robinson's Pilot Wants Giardello-Sugar Ray Bout

Cleveland, May 18 (AP)—Middleweight champion Ray Robinson's manager would "like to see Giardello in the ring with Sugar Ray."

George Gainford, Robinson's manager, said that last night in the arena dressing room of Joey Giardello minutes after the Brooklyn Italian had beaten Rory Calhoun on a split decision in a tough 10-rounder.

With welterweight king Carmen Basilio in line for a crack at Robinson next, there probably will be at least a six-month interval before the opportunity Giardello made for himself last night will materialize.

It was an opportunity that the Georgia-born Calhoun of White Plains, N. Y., had been nurturing for some months.

Calhoun Tries For KO

Accumulating a point edge in the early rounds, Giardello staved off the powerful Calhoun's bids for a knockout in the closing stanzas. The 22-year-old slugger had won 14 of 27 previous fights by knockouts and had been set back only once in his three-year career.

Giardello, who will be 27 in July and has been fighting professionally since 1948, used his experience to good advantage against the harder punching Calhoun. At 160, Joey had a two-pound weight advantage.

Referee Lou Parker scored it for Calhoun 46-45, with five rounds for Calhoun, four for Giardello and one even. Judge Charlie Bill had it favoring Joey 46-45, with the rounds 5-4-1, and judge Herb Williams saw Giardello ahead 47-45 and the rounds 5-3-2. The AP's 47-43 for Giardello gave him seven rounds to Calhoun's three.

No Knockdowns

There were no knockdowns, although Calhoun lost his balance and went down in the first and third rounds. Giardello missed with a hard punch in the 10th and went tumbling.

Both fighters were bleeding from face cuts before it was over.

Calhoun thought he won the "last five or six rounds and landed a pretty good left hook that shook Giardello up in the 10th."

In a preliminary Rudy Williams, 169, White Plains, N. Y., won on technical knockout over Clarence Alford, 162, Cleveland, at 0:52 of the 3rd round.

Fourth In Derby

He ran fourth in the Derby but beat Iron Liege in three previous meetings. Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, the kindly 82-year-old gent who trains Bold Ruler, prescribed blinkers for the fractious son of Nasrullah in hope that they will help him duplicate his victory in the Preakness prep last Monday.

The only other Derby starter to try again was Clifford Lusky's Federal Hill. He broke on top in Kentucky and led for the first mile before winding down and finished fifth. He was listed early at 6-1.

Bettors looking for a price could pick from Inswep of Gough Thompson's Roslyn Farm (12-1); Mrs. Jules Schwartz's Nah Hiss (20-1); Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Promised Land and Inside Tract (100-1); D.-M. Stable owned by Raymond DeBrino and Joseph Martino.

All carried 126 pounds in the big event scheduled to go off at 5:45 p. m. (EDT) with a nationwide television and radio audience (CBS 5:30-6 p. m. EDT) getting a "second-hand look and listen."

Kelley Heads Field of 80 in Westchester Run

Yonkers, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—Johnny Kelley, 26-year-old Groton, Conn., school teacher, defends his National A.A.U. marathon championship today against a field of about 80 over the hills and dales of Westchester county.

Kelley, first U. S. winner of the Boston marathon since "old" John A. Kelley won in 1945, set a course record of two hours, 24 minutes, 52 seconds in capturing the A.A.U. title last year. The Kelleys are no relation.

The elder Kelley, who won the national title in 1935 and 1950, is back for another try along with Dr. Charles Robbins, 1944-45, and Ted Corbitt, 1954. Of the trio only the plodding Corbitt figures to be a factor.

LEGAL NOTICE

Annual meeting of the Mt. Pleasant Rural Cemetery Association, will be held at the Mt. Tremper former school house on May 29, 1957 at 8 P. M.

Esopus Common School No. 1 Sets Future Meetings

On Wednesday, May 22, voters of Common School District No. 1, Town of Esopus will vote on the sale of property of four former school districts. The meeting will be held at the school on Clay Road at 7:30 p. m. The four properties offered for sale are in the former school districts Nos. 1, 12, 13 and 15. Acceptance of bids will be voted at that time.

On Monday, June 3, an adjourned annual school meeting will be held at the school at 7:30 p. m. at which time the budget will be presented for adoption, there will be election of officers and transaction of any other business which may be brought up under the education law.

At that meeting any school property which has not been disposed of at the May 22 meeting by vote of the taxpayers, will be acted upon.

Applications are now being received by the trustees for secretary to the principal for the school year beginning July first.

Questions -- Answers

Q—What is one of the recent discoveries in the plant kingdom?

A—Pines 4,000 years old were found growing in the White Mountains in eastern California. Scientists contend the gnarled trees are the world's oldest known living things.

Shokan

Shokan, May 18—Irvin L. Carlson of Bostock road is a patient at Benedictine Hospital following surgery.

The Misses Martha and Dorothy Churchill of Highland and Larry Bishop of Boiceville called on Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cleaveland Sunday.

Mrs. Paul Rosa, daughter Diane and son, Stewart of Delhi, called on relatives here Sunday. Diane was en route to New York City and St. Luke's Hospital where she is a student nurse.

Dawn Marie, infant daughter of Pfc. and Mrs. Morton Bermell of Hudson, received infant baptism at the Methodist Church Sunday morning. Pfc. Bermell is stationed in Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rose, uncle and aunt of Mrs. Bermell, were sponsors.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Townsend visited Mr. and Mrs. Everett Todd in Prattsville Saturday night. Their uncle, Russell Depew of Rising Sun, Md., also was there.

Mrs. Beatrice Flowton of Cairo was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rose.

Parishioners of the Methodist Church have been busy increasing their talents. On Sunday, May 19, they will be turned back to the church and will be used toward the building project. The consecration service will be held Sunday with the Rev. Bernard Grossman, new district superintendent, as the speaker.

The Intermediate and Junior choirs were in charge of the special music for Mother's Day at the church. Diane McMurry played a saxophone solo as the offertory music. Carnations on the altar were given by the Sunday school in memory of all mothers. Flowers were given to the mothers of the congregation after the service.

'Digger O'Dell' Dies

Los Angeles, May 18 (AP)—"Digger O'Dell" is dead. Actor John H. Brown, the man who played the part of "The Friendly Undertaker" on the "Life of Riley" radio show, will be interred tomorrow at Eden Memorial Park Cemetery in the San Fernando Valley following funeral services at the Park Chapel. Brown, 53, died Thursday following a heart attack. He played a number of character roles on radio, appearing on the Jack Benny and Fred Allen shows among others. He also performed on television and in the movies.

Check Short Circuit

Firemen were called at 7:11 p. m. Friday for a short circuit in an "electric motor" at 714 Broadway. The three-story mercantile and apartment building, owned by Max Hauser, is occupied on the first floor by American Cleaners and Dyers, owned by Joseph Gallagher. Firemen reported a short circuit in a clothes dryer. Engine 1 and Truck 1 from Central Station, Engine 3 and Truck 2 from Wiltwyck Station and Engine 4 and the Wicks Salvage Truck responded.

Man, 21, Given Life For Heroin Sales

Los Angeles, May 18 (AP)—For making two heroin sales that netted him $27, Gilbert M. Zaragoza, 21, must spend the rest of his life in prison.

The sentence was imposed by Federal Judge William C. Mathes yesterday under a stiffened federal law that carries a possible penalty of death for selling narcotics to persons under 18. Zaragoza was convicted of making two such sales, but the jury did not recommend the extreme penalty.

The jury has given you your life," Judge Mathes told Zaragoza, "but you are going to spend the rest of it in prison."

His sentence carries no possibility of parole.

Where did you first meet your new car?

Was it in an advertisement? So often the first meeting is... and how much it means to you and your family now. But it means even more to countless others, whose jobs depend on car sales.

When you buy a car, you help to pay the salaries of your local dealer's salesmen. Part of your money went into their bank accounts, to their grocers, to other suppliers here in town.

The circle goes on widening to include literally thousands all over America... all kinds of people in all kinds of jobs.

They buy cars, too, and millions of other items every day... from soap to securities, from Nylons to new houses. Their purchases affect you... as yours affected them. Many of these sales began with advertising on newspaper pages like this, country-wide.

So you can say, truthfully, that every time advertising helps to make a sale, your own paycheck and your family's way of living are just that much more secure.

Advertising Benefits You!

Madison, Wis. (AP)—Climaxing a heated debate on the floor of the Wisconsin Legislature, Assemblyman Elmer Genszner offered a tongue-in-cheek amendment to a bill which sets penalties for vandalism committed by children. Under Genszner's proposal, a child would be exempt from damages if he wore a sign reading: "Beware of Wild Child." The proposal was ruled out of order.

Approximately 200 million people in the world today depend largely on the ocean for their everyday food, says a Twentieth Century Fund report.

Why We Say--

MEN'S HATBANDS

MEN'S HATBANDS had a definite use when they were originally made. They acted as a draw string for tightening or loosening the hat.

Rosendale Newly Built Bridge Opened to Traffic

Rosendale, May 17—The old bridge by St. Peter's Church was opened to traffic early this week after having been closed for a number of weeks while the new bridge was being constructed.

Mayor Catherine O'Leary said that a number of merchants in Rosendale, as well as residents, had complained to her regarding the closing of the bridge. Business had been affected, and pedestrians, especially mothers with youngsters in carriages, had found it difficult to do shopping. Bus service was hampered, with many passengers having to walk to the main highway.

As a result, Mayor O'Leary discussed the situation with authorities in Albany Monday, May 13. V. Hugh of the state highway department told her the field superintendent would be advised of the situation, and later K. Rauer, acting district engineer of the state highway department informed Mayor O'Leary that the bridge would be opened May 14.

He also advised her that residents of the area should know that the closing of the bridge or the opening of same was determined by the state highway department, and that neither the Mayor nor the town supervisor had any authority in any decision regarding the bridge.

Home Unit Schedules Luncheon on June 11

Rosendale, May 17—The Rosendale Unit of the Home Extension service held its monthly meeting Tuesday, at Bloomingville firehall.

Plans were made for a luncheon to take place Tuesday, June 11, at Kass' Inn located near Margaretville. Members and friends are invited to attend the luncheon. Those planning to go should notify Mrs. Arthur O'Leary, RD 1, Box 66, Rosendale. Reservations must be made not later than June 3.

School Group to Pay For Polio Vaccine

Rosendale, May 17—The regular monthly meeting of St. Peter's School Association was held Wednesday at the school hall.

It was announced that the school association will pay for polio vaccine for all St. Peter's School children who cannot afford the shots. Dr. E. Galvin and Dr. A. Tocco have volunteered to administer the vaccine, at no charge.

Plans were made for a family group picnic to take place Saturday, June 8 at 10 a. m. at Camp Dineen, New Paltz. Those wishing to swim may do so. Soda and ice cream will be furnished at children attending.

Graduation exercises for the graduates will be held Saturday, June 22. The graduates will attend an 8 a. m. Mass, to be followed by a breakfast. The committee for the breakfast includes chairman Mrs. John O'Sullivan, Mrs. Vincent Steele, Mrs. William Einemann, Mrs. Howard Mansfield, and Miss Cathleen O'Leary.

The class will then leave for a trip to Auriesville and upon their return will have dinner at the Villa Bianca in Rosendale.

The next meeting of the school association will take place Wednesday, June 19. Following a short business session, a social will be held for all parents, guardians and members of the association. Entertainment and refreshments will be provided by the hostesses Mrs. Louis Venturolo, Mrs. Peter Mathews, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. Herman Walsh, and Mrs. Frank DeFrancis.

U. S. National Guard Units took part in eleven campaign and 34 assault landings in World War 2.

WAITING AND HOPING—Anxiety is etched on the face of Benjamin Hooper (center) moments after he and his wife (right) peered down the well shaft where their son, Benjamin, Jr., 7, was trapped 21 feet below the surface. The boy fell into the shaft shortly after his father had finished drilling the hole and warned him to stay away from it. (NEA Telephoto) from their throats when the rescuers heard they had succeeded.

Boy Is Under

Benny toppled into the 24-foot deep well in the backyard of the Hooper's Long Island home at 7:30 p. m. Thursday night. At 7:10 last night the rescuers broke through to his side.

The workmen clawed with bare hands through the last few inches of earth.

Was Held Upright

In a few moments, Sam Woodson, a negro construction worker, lifted the weakened child from the sandy trap that had held him upright and motionless through a night and a day.

The elated Woodson said:

"I was the happiest boy alive when I saw his blue eyes."

Hooper, a 33-year-old truck driver, shouted:

"He's alive, he's alive."

Then he dashed wildly for the house to break the news to Benny's mother. Mrs. Hooper, 30, a telephone operator, had been almost prostrate with grief and growing hopelessness.

Had Struck Water

The Hoopers' agony began as the sun set Thursday evening.

Hooper had just struck water after several days' digging in the backyard of the modest ranch-style home 70 miles east of New York City.

He went to get a piece of piping for the well.

Then Benny tried to leap over the foot-wide opening. He landed short of his mark on loose sand.

The terrified boy slipped swiftly down into the pitch-black pit.

10 Airmen Hurt In Fog Landing

Chicago, May 18 (AP)—Ten airmen were injured last night when a twin-engine navy airplane crashed into a pond while attempting an instrument landing at fog-shrouded Glenview Naval Air Station.

Six of the navymen suffered undisclosed minor injuries and were being treated at the base hospital, a Glenview spokesman said.

Names of the crewmen were not announced.

Explosion, Flash

The aircraft—a P2V Neptune bomber—approached Glenview from the north in thick fog which blanketed the Chicago area most of the evening.

John Wilbur, of suburban Northbrook, was driving by in a car and said he heard a roar and a big ball of fire.

"There was a big explosion and then a flash," he said and the plane bounced into the pond near Willow Road and Shermer avenue.

The bomber settled in chest-deep water and the injured crew was removed by life raft.

Cause of the crash was not immediately known.

The airplane flew from Hutchinson, Kan., to Glenview to take part in today's Armed Forces Day celebration.

Two teenage boys, Robert M. Siewert, Glenview, and John T. Harman, Winnetka, left their auto nearby and swam to the bomber to offer help. They remained aboard the smashed plane until naval crash crews arrived.

Will Quiz Man About Slaying Of Bristol Girl

Schenectady, N. Y., May 18 (AP)—A young man faced questioning by Connecticut police today about the slaying of 9-year-old Brenda Jane Doucette in Bristol, Conn.

The 26-year-old man, who told Schenectady police he recently quit his job in Simsbury, Conn., was found sleeping in an automobile on a rural road near here yesterday.

He was questioned by state police and sheriff's deputies about the slaying of the blonde third-grader, whose body was found Monday night in a clump of bushes outside Bristol.

An officer of the State Police Bureau of Criminal Investigation said: "We haven't got anything on him, but the investigation is being continued."

The man was charged with vagrancy, pending arrival of Connecticut police today.

New Highways Enhance Travel On West Shore

Albany, N. Y.—Long noted for its scenery, the west side of the Hudson river is fast regaining its popularity as a vacation area due to its recently acquired accessibility via the New York State Thruway, the Palisades Interstate Parkway and other new highways and bridge approaches.

The web of arterial highways will be further expanded as additional sections are added to the Palisades Interstate Parkway, and a new thruway link joins the New York "main line" with New Jersey's Garden State Parkway. The Palisades Interstate Parkway will open a new 2.7-mile section on June 22. The final gap of 5.2 miles of the parkway will be opened next year.

The Garden State Parkway is being extended north nine miles from Paramus, N. J., to the New York state border, at which point a three-mile extension is being constructed to terminate close to the Spring Valley toll barrier of the New York State Thruway. Both the New York and New Jersey projects will be completed in July.

Among the recent highway additions is the ultra-modern Route 17 from the Harriman interchange of the thruway to the resort centers of the Catskill Mountains.

Divorce Final: Power

Mexico City, May 18 (AP)—Actor Tyrone Power says there is no reconciliation in the works for him and his former wife, Linda Christian. Mrs. Alvarez Amezquita, Linda's mother, said Thursday her daughter is flying to Mexico from Europe and added that Linda may seek a reconciliation with Power. He is here making a picture "The Sun Also Rises." Power said rumors of a possible remarriage "doubtless arose from the fact Miss Christian is en route to Mexico City to be with our two daughters, who are staying with her mother while we are filming here." He said the divorce of May 1955 is "final."

Boy, 2, Buried Alive In Sewer Near Home

Cody, Wyo., May 18 (AP)—A 2-year-old boy's body was recovered last night from a narrow sewer line near his home after he was buried alive and suffocated.

Sheriff Frank Blackburn said blond Richard Thun, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Thun of Cody, was trapped in the 5-foot-deep trench and covered with earth when a power shovel filled the furrow at 11 a. m. His mother last saw him alive 30-minutes before.

The child's cries went unheard, the sheriff said, drowned out by the heavy shovel's noise.

Blackburn said the child apparently was playing in the trench when his right foot became wedged between the ditch wall and sewer pipe laid in the bottom.

Sergeant Loses Race To See Ailing Mother

Chicago, May 18 (AP)—An Air Force sergeant, who said a hunch warned him to speed to his ailing mother's bedside, lost a 5,000-mile race with death yesterday when she died just as he reached the door of her hospital room.

So Sgt. David Hunt Ellis, 28, grasped the handle of his mother's door just 29 hours after leaving his base in Madrid, Spain. At the same instant, hospital authorities said, Mrs. Florence Ellis, 54, died from a kidney ailment.

Ellis said he received a telegram from the Red Cross Thursday telling him his mother had "less than 60 days to live."

"It was a sixth sense, a hunch, that told me to go right away," he said. "I argued with myself I hated to leave my wife and baby alone in Spain. But I felt I should come immediately."
